WE HEARD IT SAID BY (Little Editorials picked up by the Staff in and around Birmingham.) Adam Gray, of Oakland Avenue...

Mrs. Mary Dean of Woodland Avenue: "Since I have lived in Birmingham I have seen more fires than ever before in my life. I attribute this to the fact that, because of incompetent garbage collectors...

Frank L. Doty, village attorney: "Of course, I am willing to admit that there are too many laws on the statute books of our land. We only need fundamental principles...

Mr. Earle of Southfield, father of (Protestant) Earle, youthful violinist: "After an engagement at the Temple Theater in Detroit and the one in Cleveland we don't expect to let Earle play any more professional engagements for another five or six years. He will spend that time in study."

Mrs. R. D. Montgomery of Parry Street: "The concert given by Earle Monday night was a decided success, in my opinion. He played a number of encores consisting of both popular and classical numbers. At my house he was played and played. He certainly is a virtuoso. He doesn't seem to want it ever to get out of his sight."

FRANK CRAVEN IN 'NEW BROOMS' AT BONTELLE. Though Frank Craven is now appearing on the road in "New Brooms" from his own pen, Miss Bonstelle has fortunately secured the play for Detroit presentation and will offer it at the Playhouse for a fortnight beginning Feb. 1st.

Manager is hereby instructed to prepare plans, together with an estimate of the cost of construction of new water works, improvements, and file the same with the Commission, with the name of the contractor...
