WITH DOROTHY MACKAIL

BIRMINGHAM HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

SPECIAL: "OUR GANG" COMEDY

ADMISSION: 25c AND 35c

FIRST NATIONAL PICTURE

OH! BOY, SHIP AHOY
Come Aboard! Lots of JOY

Our Dick is the snappy Jackie—and Dorothy Mackail's his sweetie. It's as big as Claxmates with the drama and humor of Uncle Sam's fighting sailors all through it. And it sounds the depth of your feelings in moments when the salt o' the sea bites into the love wounds of a gallant sailor.

COLLEGE WOMEN BACK RUTH DRAPER RECITAL

Internationally famous for her character portrayals, Miss Ruth Draper will give one of her delightful programs in Orchestra hall, Thursday evening, Jan. 14, under the joint auspices of the local alumni association of Smith, Wellesley and Bryn Mawr colleges and of the Chi Omega sorority. Miss Draper's character studies whether comic, satirical, or tragic, are sharply drawn portraits of recognizable types in intensely dramatic situations. Although last year was her first public recital in Detroit, she has several times appeared here under auspices of clubs or social functions in private homes. Her Detroit program will be carefully balanced between characters she has portrayed here before and new ones, most of which are the result of a tour of Europe last summer.
