FOUR NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO DeMOLAYS

Last night (Jan. 5) in the Masonic Temple the James S. Hasseberger Chapter Order of DeMolay put a class of four candidates thru the DeMolay degree. They were Geo. F. Funky, Vernon Bove, Russell H. Brown and Arnold Grooms. A number of Masons and DeMolays were present to witness the ceremonies.

After the completion of the work short talks were heard from the new members, also Rev. McCurdy, Rev. Atkins, and B. J. Melrow.

A number of petitions have already been received for the January 25th and more are expected before the regular meeting next Tuesday evening, Jan. 12. At this regular meeting a date will be set when the Royal Ark DeMolay will be invited to put on the work here.

The local DeMolays have also received an invitation to join on the work of Clarkston and assist in the formation of a chapter there.

WHAT ARE ODD JOBS?

An "odd job" is something that has to be done—whether it is painting, decorating, fixing a roof, or anything pertaining to house repairing. And I am ready and able to respond to your immediate call. Just try me. All work neatly done. Estimates gladly given.
