

PRESENT LIBRARY IS PROPERTY OF VILLAGE

When Sold All Money is Turned Over to Birmingham Treasury

In connection with the publicity campaign for a new village library building the question has been asked "Why does not the Library Board sell the present library building at Woodward and East Maple and use the proceeds to build their new building?"

The Birmingham Village Library was established and maintained in various places for many years by a Ladies-Library Association which included many of the women of Birmingham.

The Village of Birmingham to be disposed of as the electors may direct... The late older Dr. Raynale never dreamed that his automobile would be a stop along the side of the road and after its parts of the machine would have to get out and lead the horse down the road.

REMINISCENCES OF WHITEHEAD'S CRONIES

(Continued from Page 1) used the library calling "added Mitchell. He surely had a well filled think-tank and was far from lacking in ability. He wrote remarkably well for Quoting 'Field and Stream' and 'Recreation'.

His persistence in helping to put the U. U. - through Birmingham proved the man of imagination that Whitehead was. All of the farmers in the neighborhood present right away protested the idea, saying that such an improvement would kill the town's prestige.

His love for the outdoors led him into many fishing trips. It is said that Mr. Whitehead had fished at every lake in Oakland county. Mitchell seldom ever went along on any of these trips, since someone had to remain behind to take care of business.
