

REGULATIONS FOR AUTO TOURING IN CANADA EXPLAINED

Inasmuch as many Birmingham folk are planning to cross the Canadian border in the course of the annual vacation period, it is felt that the following article pertinent to touring regulations and customs routine should prove of interest.

Instruction certificates and secure permits from the customs officials. The original copy is given to the tourist and surrendered on leaving Canada. If a tourist has a 30 day permit and desires to extend this he must present his permit to a Collector of Customs and Excise for a permit for a six months stay.

The Canadian Government is liberal in its equipment taken by tourists. Practically every type of tourist equipment is admitted free for the six months period. The only requirement is that a deposit be made covering the amount of duties, which is returned upon exportation.

Tourist's Outfit. The Canadian Government is liberal in its equipment taken by tourists. Practically every type of tourist equipment is admitted free for the six months period.
