100,000th Oakland Six Is Now On Road

Car number 100,000 in the famous 6-54 series of the Oakland Six was turned out on February 13th at the Oakland factories, Pontiac, Mich.

When this car left the line, the production of Oakland automobiles had reached approximately 100,000. Incidentally, the same day the 100,000th car of the 6-54 series was turned out, the total day's production was 433 cars.

During the first year of operation of the company, 1908, a total of 735 cars were turned out...

The popularity of the 6-54 series is proven by the fact that it has remained unchanged since it was first introduced...
