New Family Freedom With Two Cars
The advantage of two cars in the family becomes more strikingly apparent than ever—when one—if not both—of them is the Hupmobile Six, with its refreshing beauty, its un-dashing performance, and its unusually low costs of daily operation and monthly upkeep.

Women Not Spendthrifts, U. S. Statistician Says

THE charge that women are spendthrifts for their personal adornment is not founded on a fact. "Women spend less for clothes than men," says Ethelbert Stewart, commissioner of the United States bureau of labor statistics in Washington.

Wife Stays at Home

The first item of cutting is on furniture. They sit on the old chair when it does wobble, instead of buying a new one.

There Are Limits

This bureau almost daily receives requests for figures on an American standard of living. We can't say what it ought to be.

Senator Borah Tells Him How

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho (right) and Fred T. Dubois, first senator from the state, are shown telling Nicolas Sabatini (center) chief of the Mayflower hotel in Washington the fine points about cooking the delicacy from the "Yacht State."
