Methodist Preacher Gives Own Report On Sermon Last Sunday

CHURCH IS NOT BITTER Preacher Says World Must Choose Between Continental And American Idea

Note: We met Rev. Atkins Monday, he said: "Well, George, I took your word for Sunday night... I am not bitter, but rather an opinion that is tempered by the spirit of the Lord himself."

Church Not Bitter Although bitterness does characterize the attitude of the Methodist church, nevertheless the church is opposed to Sunday motion picture...

Impressions Of Washington

By CLARENCE VLIET, Supt. Local Public Schools. A trip to Washington affords at least three things for a report. It may be the technical side of the convention attended, the public men seen and heard, or the interesting historical buildings or places visited.

The Superintendents' meeting of the National Education Association, the N. E. A., has grown enormously in recent years. Twelve years ago the delegates to the meeting held in Washington that year were welcomed by President Roosevelt in the east room of the White House.

Topics Discussed The general topic of the meeting was "The Revision of the Constitution and Its Discussion in Various Sections of the Country."
