

Just To Make You Smile The White

The Best Smiles of 1926 Will Not Be Like These... He had an even chance, like a man in a scenario contest...

Do you like codfish balls? I don't know; I never attended any. Sick Aunt—"Well, I shan't be a nuisance to you much longer..."

Young Mrs. Rich—"I'd like to get something for my old bedridden husband..."

Santa—"I want to thank you for the wool socks..."

"Drop me a line," said the second mate as he fell overboard...

No matter what you do someone always know you would...

"Oh, Peter, how you have grown since you went away to college..."

"Grow, what should I grow about..."

Community Spirit The man who worked for the street railway company hailed a taxi every day and rode to the office...

The foreman of a shoe factory walked to work every day in work shoes made in another city...

They met up a Booster Lunch where each gave a five-minute talk on loyalty—Life.

Truth crushed to earth will rise again, or course, because it will lie.

Blessed is the telephone girl who never expects the subscribers to be polite.

Silence helps a lot when one is trying to get by with an inferior set of brains.

An anonymous donation to charity usually gets the most publicity in the long run.

Hopeful note from a newspaper of Victoria, B. C.—"The board was gratified to learn that receipts were 50 per cent greater last year and the hope was expressed that next year the cemetery will be self-supporting."

The Egg and His Own My name was Smith. James H. Smith. Not a unique name, true, but I took a certain pride in it...

Then I got on somebody's mailing list. Within the next two weeks: A brochure on "The Power of Personality" came for J. H. Smith...

H. Smith was requested to sign enclosed card for sample...

J. H. Smith was one of the favored few who would be permitted to buy a grapefruit farm at rock-bottom price.

A complete set was offered to Juno H. Schmitz for 9 cents, money back if not satisfied.

Mr. Schmitz was asked to donate to the Holston Home.

A limited amount of "Golden Goose" oil stock was generously reserved for Judah Schmitz.

As a special try-out offer, Jack H. Schmitz would be permitted to wear one for ten days, free of charge.

Hames Sneath was urged to secure 100 calling cards like sample, for 39 cents.

J. Shout "I've changed my name to Stanislaw Preysomilchik, but if they misspell that one, I'll never know it..."

When the heart takes a notion to fall in love it seldom calls the brain into conference.

Just about the time we got people educated against inhaling gas they began stepping on it.

It would take some time to adequately describe a porcupine, but here of his many fine points.

-SAFETY LAST Lies slumbering here one William Lake; he heard the bell, but had no winks...

At 50 miles drove Allie Pidd; he thought he wouldn't, but he did.

At 30 miles drove Edie Shaw; the motor stopped, but "Ed" kept on.

Here he sleeps, one Johnny Fonker; he rounded a turn without a honk...

Down in the creek sleeps Werry Bear; the bridge was narrow; he tried to pass.

Beneath this stone sleeps William Raines; ice on the hill; he had no chaps.

Here lies the body of William Jay; he died maintaining his right-of-way...

And here's what's left of Samuel Small; he paid no attention to "slow" signs at all.

Here lies what's left of Harry; at the railroad crossing he did not tarry...

There are some girls who have absolutely no vanity; they are content to anything rather than have a man think them attractive...
