Music to the Tune of Prosperity

"Busy-ness" in the building industry means prosperity to the community. New buildings indicate, not only that the owners of those buildings are prospering, but that many other people employed in the construction of those buildings, and handling, selling and manufacturing the materials that are used in the construction of those new buildings, are busy and thus prosperous.

Our lumber yard and offices have become

A Public Institution

We consistently endeavor to give this community the most modern, conveniently arranged, economical homes and have always been interested in its general prosperity in this way, so that we are now recognized as the center of reliable building information.
