The parents of Frederick Ashbaugh, 15-year-old pupil of the Tuscarora, Bloomfield township rural school, ought to be proud of the fact that their son is the district champion speller.

Alice Smith, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith of Merrill street, does not feel "terrible bad" about losing the local spelling contest to Frederick Ashbaugh.

Boys of today have many advantages over their dads. Take, for instance, the Boy Scout Movement.

Some day the business and professional men of Birmingham assisted by interested citizens will realize that a Chamber of Commerce or some similar organization, is necessary to the progress of Birmingham.

Never in the history of Birmingham have so many houses been under construction simultaneously as this Spring.

Mrs. Birmingham, better arrange to get your "garbage tickets" from the village clerk before June 1.

A. D. Gallery, publisher of the Tuscola County Advertiser, Caro, Michigan, in writing of the recent death of Frank E. Schall, Caro's late superintendent of schools, had this splendid eulogy to make about him:

"Lands and chattels, stocks and bonds are of course desirable and serve a necessary purpose in society, but in the hour of death they fade into insignificance, if they constitute a man's chief claim to honor.

A careful search of all the philosophies ever propounded for the uplift of the human race will never fail to reveal the truth that "evil destroys itself" and that "wrong deeds will eventually out." The lives of many people prove the truthfulness of this philosophy; scarcely a day passes but what the newspapers carry stories that reveal the inner secret wrong setting of people. This is especially true of public officials who "go wrong." They are generally "found out" before they take up a permanent residence in a coffin.

Under the caption of "Detroit's Crew For Trip to Point; Barron and Beyond," the Detroit News last Saturday carried a large picture of Maj. Langhiser, Capt. Wilkins and Lieut. Wisely, each of the trio heavily garbed in arctic furs.

The Rochester Era recently entered its 54th consecutive year of publication. One of the unique facts about this Oakland County Weekly newspaper is the fact that it has been in the hands of one family all these years.

Early last week, an account of the threatened labor strike in England, his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, was called away from Biarritz.
