NEW MUSICAL CLUB WITH 30 MEMBERS IS ORGANIZED HERE

Mrs. Henry Riley Fuller Chosen President; Group To Study Best In Music

TWO ARTISTS SCHEDULED

About 30 women gathered Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Loren Stauch, on West Maple avenue, and organized the Monday Musicals of Birmingham, a club that will devote itself seriously to the best in music.

Although no definite program for the year has been outlined, it is expected that Miss Edith M. Rhotts, who is well known in music circles in Detroit, will speak at the November meeting and Frederick Alexander, of the music department at the State Normal College at Ypsilanti, at the December gathering.

"We will have performances by our own members and by outside talent that is available," Mrs. Whiting Raymond, who has done considerable work in community music in the state, said. "Music, real music, good music, is to be the aim of the organization."

A chorus will probably be organized among the members, Mrs. Raymond said, so that those who are particularly interested in singing may work together.

Officers.

Mrs. Raymond, who, with Mrs. Stauch and Mrs. Leslie Lamborn, has been active in promoting enthusiasm for the organization of the club, presided at the meeting, at which the following officers were elected: Mrs. Henry Riley Fuller, of North Woodward avenue, president; Miss Alicia Fuller, secretary; and Mrs. D. C. Murray, of Oakland avenue, treasurer.

Four standing committees were appointed. Mrs. E. S. Bailey, of Ferndale avenue, is chairman of the program committee, with Mrs. Raymond Reilly, of Oak street, Mrs. Arthur Neff, of Watkins street, Mrs. Leslie Lamborn, of Park street, and Mrs. Laurence Clark, of Willetts street, assisting.

Comittees

Mrs. Fred Boynton, of Dorchester road, heads the membership committee, assisted by Mrs. Jack Gilray, of Dorchester road, Mrs. George Dwelley, of East Maple avenue, and Mrs. Lamborn.

Mrs. Loren Stauch was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, with Mrs. Earl G. Potter, of Oakland avenue, assisting.

The special committee on rules and constitution is composed of Mrs. Raymond, chairman, Mrs. Charles Shain, of Pierce street, and Mrs. Stauch.

The second Monday of each month was decided on for a meeting day. The exact time and place of meeting, however, have not been definitely decided upon.

Mrs. Georgia Richards Baskerville played three Chopin numbers at the meeting and tea was served.

Wednesday at the church.

MANY VILLAGE FOLK ATTEND WEDDING

Christian-Clark Ceremony Has Beautiful Church Setting At Pontiac

Of interest to many Birmingham persons was the wedding Saturday evening in All Saints' Episcopal Church, Pontiac, of Miss Dorothea Christian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Christian, to John E. Clark, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Clark, both of Pontiac.

A reception was held after the ceremony on the second floor ballroom of the Bloomfield Hills Country club, which was gorgeous with fall flowers. A wedding cake, six feet high, was placed at one end of the room, and the reception line, composed of Dr. and Mrs. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Miss Betty Bartholomew, Miss Josephine Walter, Miss Virginia Davison and Miss Betty Clark, formed at the other end. Dancing followed a lovely wedding supper for 14 guests.

A number of out-of-town guests attended the wedding, among them; Miss Francis Crulkshank, of Decatur, Ill., Miss Elizabeth Davison, of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry and their daughter Peggy, of Flint, Mrs. Ann Christian, of Wyoming, Mrs. H. S. Bartholomew, of Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Draper, of Saginaw.

Many Representatives Attend Reserve Meet

Representatives from Ferndale, Plymouth, Hazel Park, Birmingham and Detroit gathered for the semi-annual setting-up conference for High School Girl Reserves at the Community House from 11 a. m. until 5 p. m. Saturday. About 100 were present.

Birmingham chapter was represented by Rosemary Lamond, president; Velma Wilkinson, secretary; Virginia Neal, Rosannah and Helen Manchester, and Mrs. G. A. Moore, one of the advisers.

One of the main topics of discussion was the Girl Reserve Ring Standards. It has been the custom for girls who have been members of the club for two years and have tried their best to live up to the Girl Reserve code and certain standards, to receive a silver ring bearing the blue triangle. It was these standards upon which most of the discussion centered.

Other subjects pertaining to the clubs, their organization and their work for the coming season were also discussed.

Miss Fay P. Frazier, executive secretary of the girls' work for the Y. W. C. A. in Detroit, which sponsors the Girl Reserves, had charge of the program. She was assisted by Miss Emma McIntosh, leader of the high school girls' work.

GROSSE POINTE RACES OFFER SURPRISES

"Eloquence" Defeats Two Favorites In Three Mile Race On New Track.

One of the reverses in prophesy of the Grosse Pointe Hunt club races last Saturday over the club's new track was the winning of the Burns Henry Memorial Cup by Elliot Slocum Nichols' "Eloquence." The course was three and one-half miles over post and rail, and the time was six minutes, twenty and four-fifths seconds. W. Street was riding Eloquence, who came in ahead of B. L. Behr's Chicago horse, "Burgoright," who did not finish the race, and J. S. Sweeney's "Lieutenant Seas," both favored in this race.

Weston Seyburn's "Sand Rock," ridden by E. Albright, took first place in two events, the first race, six furlongs on the flat, in one minute, 21 seconds, and the last race, for the Steward's cup, one and one-half miles on the flat, in two minutes, thirty-nine and four-fifths seconds.

Daniel Boone, also owned by Wesson Seyburn, took third place in the two and one-half mile open steeplechase. T. Thomas was riding.

Birmingham Reserves Entertain One Hundred Girls From Detroit

The modern girl showed up in her very finest aspect Saturday when more than 100 Detroit girls were entertained by the Birmingham Girl Reserves at an Inter Club council at the Community House from 10 a. m. until 5:30 p. m.

The council is composed of the officers of the Detroit Girl Reserves, which is a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A., and their advisers. It is an organization working in connection with the schools much as the local Y. M. C. A. does. Most of the advisers are teachers.

Clever, attractive girls gathered in groups to discuss the serious aims and activities of the society and in the two general meetings showed the same interest and intensity which is commonly supposed to be called forth only in the pursuit of excitement. Future leadership in affairs social, political and domestic was seen there in its beginnings.

Miss Ella McIntosh of the Detroit Y. W. C. A. was in charge of the program and she was assisted by the presidents of the various clubs. A box luncheon was served at noon for which the Birmingham Girl Reserves provided the coffee. Songs and stories varied the days activities.

The resignation of Mrs. George A. Moore as counsellor of the local club which she sponsored and brought to its present efficiency was brought in appeal from the president of the Community House board, Mrs. Chas. Shain, to the community for a leader to carry forward this movement into the wide field of usefulness.

"Those organizations which have public service as one of their objectives might very often be of immense service to their community through assistance given to the Community House in some of its ever increasing problems," says Mrs. Shain. "If one of the societies of the village could provide a leader for the Girl Reserves and stand behind her with its interest they would deserve the thanks of the community as well as the Community House board."

In pursuance of this idea an appeal was made to the University Women for teachers of the special classes which were organized Monday night and a list of five volunteers resulted.

Mrs. C. N. Wilson, who has charge of the newly formed classes in special subjects, resigned from the Community House board because of her intended absence from the village this winter and Mrs. Roland H. Mann was elected to fill the vacancy.
