BALDWIN THEATER.

Baldwin theater announces some fine pictures for coming week...

Her beauty is described as ineffable—a patrician pulchritude and poise that stands any comparison...

White on the last half of the week... The Shamrock Handicap, a wonderful racing story...

GARRICK

L. Lawrence Weber presents Houdini, the world famous magician and necromancer...

Houdini is offering an entertainment consisting of what he calls "three shows in one..."

The secret of Houdini and his popularity has been a source of comment for many years...

Robert Fickie piles up laughs as the grouch, while dainty Lucille Moore and Jocelyn Lytle fit gaily into the scenes...

The chorus is timed just right, a compliment to Sammy Lee who staged the numbers, the pretty hoppers march and kick together...

Houdini carries for the proper presentation of his own entertainment, more paraphernalia than any other attraction of a like nature...

CASB

Beginning next Sunday night that altogether refreshing musical comedy "Queen High" starts on its last week at the Case theater, Detroit.

It has been a long time since a musical comedy has been in Detroit that has been so complete in clean-cut humor, without a suggestive line...

The polish of Julia Sanderson and Frank Crumit give a high finish to the presentation.

The "See You, See I" ditty of Crumit and Nina Olivette stops the show nightly; Miss Olivette is the love-yearning maid-servant and Crumit as the unwilling butler through

Thomas Meighan

It was in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., that popular Tom Meighan was born...

Then there is Mildred Brown who beautifies "Everything Will Happen for the Best" and "Don't Forget" with Joe Wagstaff...

Robert Fickie piles up laughs as the grouch, while dainty Lucille Moore and Jocelyn Lytle fit gaily into the scenes...

The chorus is timed just right, a compliment to Sammy Lee who staged the numbers, the pretty hoppers march and kick together...

SHUBERT-DETROIT

Detroit theater patrons have been quick to take advantage of the unprecedented opportunity for entertainment...

With a cast of more than 150, a distinguished list of principals headed by Tessa Kostka and Guy Robertson...

donna of Mr. Hammerstein's latest... cast of principals including Guy Robertson, Bernard Goorney...

Richard Barthelme

Another comedian who is eagerly awaiting the result of his first film is George Jessel, now a-tour with "The Jazz Singer"...

THEATER GOSSIP FROM NEW YORK

Strangely enough, "Cradle Snatchers" has been a failure on tour, in the small towns, at least...

Katherine Cornell will remain on tour with "The Green Hat" until Nov. 6, when she will conclude her season in Buffalo...

Como Hamilton has dramatized "His Majesty the King"—it was a novel in the beginning—and the Dramatic Theatre will produce it...

Among the unaccustomed first-nighters in this town during the last week were Frank Swinnerton and Hugh Walpole.

Seemingly "The Ghost Train" has but another week of life here—it began its run auspiciously...

The play called "Mr. Sweeney," which was to have been produced by Louis John Bartels in his leading role...

"Katja, the Dancer," which opened in Philadelphia a week ago, will probably come to Johnson's Theatre a week hence.

Half a dozen plays wound up their metropolitan careers this week. They were "Garrick Games"...

With a cast of more than 150, a distinguished list of principals headed by Tessa Kostka and Guy Robertson...

Popular "Dick" doesn't look much like an "amateur gentleman" here, does he? The inspiration feature of that name will be his next release—"The Amateur Gentlemen"...

The play entitled "Stylish Stouts" will be temporarily closed on tour and will be somewhat revised before it tempts the metropolis...

A London newspaper says that when Somerset Maugham's "The Letter" is acted here Judith Anderson will have the leading role...

Mr. Maugham, incidentally, is another English author who has recently reached these shores. In addition to "The Letter," his "The Constant Wife" also will be produced here soon...

H. H. Frasse, rightly not unwilling to profit anew by the success of "No, No, Nanette," has named his forthcoming musical comedy "Yes, Yes, Yes"...

Default having been made in the condition of a certain mortgage made by John A. Hughes and Laura M. Hughes...

Half a dozen plays wound up their metropolitan careers this week. They were "Garrick Games," which has been pleasantly successful at the house which gives it its name...

Electric Table Stove Operates on a Lamp Socket

This very convenient and thoroughly satisfactory utensil permits of the cooking of meals at the table. It is really a table range. It cooks three things at the same time—enough for three or four persons—and cooks these things perfectly, as only electricity can cook.

The Electric Table Stove costs little to buy and little to operate. It is a great comfort to the housewife.

Come in and let us tell you more about it.
