

SCHOOL NAMES 46 HONOR STUDENTS

Five Weeks of Hard Work Bring Many Coasted High Marks

The first honor roll of the school year made its appearance this week. There are 46 students on the list for the five-week period. The honor roll consists of students having a grade of 'B' or higher for the preceding five weeks. Every one tries to make the grades required as it is a real honor and represents a considerable hard work. The names of those who are on this time are: Grade 7B: Marian Bany, Emily Conard, and Lois Spreen. Grade 8B: Wm. Bowler, Barbara Drury, Mary Emma Green, and Morris Winborn. Grade 9A: Virginia Hugg, and Esther Kelsey. Grade 9B: Betty Brown, Laura Drury, Allie Grace Fell, Katherine Hunt, Mary E. Hutchinson, Bruce D. MacDonald, Alice L. Smith, and Patricia Strling. Grade 10A: Frances Frye, and Francis Stephens. Grade 10B: Lawrence Bassett, Anne Kelly, Olive Kruger, Bernice Kreage, Winifred Quanton, Margaret Strand, and Thelma Robertson. Grade 10A: Roderick Cox, David Doherty, Jack Savage, and Bertha Wendt. Grade 11B: Dorothy Bowden, Dorothy Cook, George Cooney, Mildred Patterson, Loreta Forritt, Marian Quanton, and Roger Toothaker. Grade 12B: John Boyd, Norman Corrin, Mildred Green, Elizabeth Hassall, Mary Louise Lips, Anna Richman, Margaret Smith, Charlotte Wood, and Alice Upward.

Latin Paper Staff Members Named

Each year the Latin classes of the high school publish a paper consisting of articles written in both English and Latin. These articles are written and edited by members of the Latin classes. The purpose of the paper is to interest other students in the subject, and to give others an idea what Latin is doing for those who study it. Copies of the 'Acta' are sent to many other schools and they in turn send copies of their Latin paper to the Baldwin High School. In this way students here are able to know what other schools are doing in foreign languages. A new staff is elected for each issue of the 'Acta.' The members of the staff for the first number are: John Palmer and Byron Winborn, editor and associate editor respect-

THUNDERING HERD ENJOYS FIRST TREK

Walking Club Plans To Enlarge Next Hike To 12 Miles During A Day

Immediately at the close of school last Thursday about 12 girls met with Miss MacIntyre, athletic director, for the first of this year's hikes. Originally these were opened to anyone, particularly those in advanced gym classes or basketball girls. However, it was decided to form a club and initiate any new members. Last week the group, headed by three girls, who called themselves 'The Thundering Herd,' took a short hike out west Maple and through the fields, returning to Birmingham about 6 p. m.

For a while these hikes will be every two weeks. The next being Oct. 28. This is planned to be six miles. The girls will stop to rest and eat, and then return. Each member of the club is asked to bring one new member, those to be sworn in after supper.

The glass in the door of Miss Walker's room broke again yesterday. We are not superstitious but...

ively, with Carl Hilly as business manager. Miss Elva Hickox and Miss Mabel Stickle are the Latin teachers at Baldwin High School.

2 THIRTEENS FAIL TO SPOIL TEACHERS' FUN

Bridge is Main Part of Program Given By Baldwinites in Community House Wednesday

Teachers of the Hill, Adams, Pierce and Barnum schools were guests of teachers of the Baldwin High School at a bridge party given at the Community House Wednesday evening. Miss Dena Hallock of Barnum, Miss Elizabeth Graves of Baldwin and Clarence Viles, Superintendent of Schools, won the first prizes. Miss Isabel Foreman of Barnum, Miss Wilma Cahow and Marilyn Smiley of Adams won the consolation prizes. Refreshments were served later in the evening. Although Wednesday was the thirtieth of the month and while there were thirteen tables of bridge, all enjoyed themselves immensely.

GIRL RESERVES TO HOLD TEA TODAY

Detroit High School Secretary Will Address The Large Attendance Expected

The Girl Reserves will hold a tea at the Community House at 4:30 p. m. today. Invitations have been issued to all members of the Senior high and a large attendance is expected. The purpose of the tea is to acquaint the girls, who are not already members, with the ideals of the club. Miss McIntosh, high school secretary from Detroit, will address the girls. Membership is open to all girls in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades and it is hoped that a large number will be pledged. The prospects for a larger club are better this year than last, because membership has been closed until this time.

FROM THE SIDELINES By 'LEFTY'

How did you like the Ypsilanti band? Was it had one. The leader with his fur bonnet and baton sure strutted his stuff. "Oh look!" someone cried, when Birmingham had received a penalty, "they've been analyzed."

Miss Taylor, our math teacher, grew so excited when we scored touchdown, that she broke a sideline post. Let's equal the post.

7 come 11—Ypsi sure was depending on Luck when she sent in seven for eleven in the last quarter.

The sub happened to be Pray for Simmons. Well, they needed to pray for someone.

NOVEL STUNT ON JUNIOR PROGRAM

The second assembly program for the season for the junior high was put on Friday by the eighth grade under Esther Rainey in charge. The first number was a piano solo by Genevieve Upper, after which Mary Emma Green gave a vocal selection. Next was a exercise given by seventh and eighth grade girls, each representing a day of the week. Rosemary Grimmonden brought the program to a close with another piano solo.
