BALDWIN DEFEATS ROCHESTER, 12-0

'Red' Dougherty Gets Through Opposition For Both Counts

Birmingham defeated Rochester last Friday with two touchdowns, both made by 'Red' Dougherty, in the first quarter and the other in the fourth. This 12-0 victory was made possible by the consistent punting of Ben Brown, whose offensive kicking kept Rochester in their own territory throughout the game. Our team had the ability to add up a large score but they failed to do so, because of the inability of our backfield to find the holes made for them by the line. George Cooney, playing his first game gave a real exhibition at right half. Harrison, a new man at Birmingham, performed well at fullback. Dougherty, the 'Red' Grange of Birmingham, went through the line time after time for yards. 'Stub' Bailey and Ben Brown, well-known men for several seasons, both played a good game. The weather as usual took a turn towards rain on Friday, but made no material difference as the Rochester field was quite dry.

the game by kicking off. An exchange of punts and fumble gave Birmingham the ball. Dougherty made consecutive gains off tackle and around the end. Cooney took the ball around the end where Dougherty, after plunging the line, made a touchdown. We failed to make the extra point. Rochester kicked off and we returned it. A fumble on their part gave us the ball.

Second period—Rochester took the ball on downs. Coombe and Spencer made successive gains. A fumble and an exchange of punts gave it to the Harrison hurt his shoulder in an attempted gain. The quarter closed with a pretty pass from Harrison to Bailey which netted 25 yards. Third period—Birmingham kicked off and took the fumbled ball from Rochester. Spence backed them up to their own goal line where they turned to Harrison who took the ball well into their territory. Birmingham received a penalty and Rochester took the ball on downs. Cooney gained Fourth period—Rochester punted to Birmingham. Cooney then made a spectacular run off the end for several yards, followed by Harrison who took the ball near the line, where Dougherty scored. An attempted place kick went low. An incomplete pass and loss of yards for Birmingham ended the game.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY PROGRAM Last Friday morning the seniors presented the first assembly program of the year with Miss Monelle Loftis as the chairman, in charge.

The program was opened by the singing of the school song, 'The Maroon and White,' by the student body and the reading of the scripture by Miss Charlotte Wood. Attention was next centered on the reading of the senior class paper which was written by the Misses Mary L. Lipka, Hilma Trumbull, Maxine Jewell, and Ralph Thompson. Clifford Harper and Douglas'Brien, Carpenter Hewitt, and the president of the class, read it and left out some very important items, mainly because they concerned himself.

The next number was especially well received. It being our well-known trio, Claude Streb and Ralph Thompson accompanied by Max Gail at the piano. Mr. Toothacker next gave a talk on the annual sales which closed Oct. 1. The program was concluded with a few yells for the football team, led by Yell-Master, 'E' Thompson.

JUNIOR GIRLS ASSEMBLY The junior assembly was presented last Friday morning by the freshman class. After the scripture reading by Miss Laura Drury, Mr. Hart sang 'Dear Little Boy of Mine' which, of course, everyone thought quite appropriate. Bennet Brown, a senior and captain of the football team gave a football talk. Miss Pearl Peterson was next and she gave a delightful piano solo, while the Misses Joan Winborn and Margaret Haldane presented a Russian dance. Betty Kidder, Ruth Grove, Oak DeBerg, James Winborn, Carson Bingham, and K. Wilson presented an amusing pantomime. The program was concluded by several songs sung by the student-body and led by Mr. Hart.

MOVIES The Senior Washington group is presenting the movie 'The Lost World' at the High School auditorium tomorrow night. This is a movie as thrilling as the title forecasts. Everyone out and we will take you on a startling trip up the Amazon to places which never have been explored by man. It is a vivid breath-taking story of romance and adventure and one which you will never forget.

Rehearsing 'Pinafore' For November Show

Work on this year's school Opera 'Pinafore' which will be presented in the Baldwin auditorium on Nov. 19 is well under way. The leading members of the cast are, Miss Alice Hoffman, who is taking the part of 'Josephine,' and William Spence, as 'Ralph Kock.' Other members of the cast are: Frederick Whittlesey, Clarence Kalkellian, William Dawson, Claude Streb, Clifford Harper, Bennet Streb, Roger Toothacker, Catherine Brown, and Elizabeth Lacombe. The boys and girls Glee club will have an important part in the Opera.

Girls In Gym Class To Take Long Hikes

An advanced class in physical training for girls is being offered by Miss Helen MacIntyre, physical training instructor. It will be for those not having less than three years of physical training, and for those desiring to go out for basketball this season. The work will consist of hikes which will start with two or three miles and gradually work up to long ones. Our instructor is anxious to make this class a success and wants applications from those who enjoy walking.

500 SCHOOL 'ANNUALS' SOLD BY STUDENTS

Constant, Hard Work Pays Mark They 'Beat The Time Limit Nears.

When the 'Annual' sales for 1927 closed Friday night the Senior Class breathed freely for the first time in two weeks for the required 500 has been sold. Now, after the excitement of having our picture taken, the students are away, the arrival of the finisher Baldwinian will be waited upon with great anticipation.

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY JUNIOR CLASS FOR SCHOOL YEAR

Members Are Active In Planning Activities To Enjoy The Winter Months.

At an early meeting of the Junior class this year Miss Purcell was elected advisor, Elizabeth Bray, vice-president, and Roger Toothacker secretary. George Cooney having been elected president in his sophomore year is to hold that office until after their trip. Candy bars have been much in evidence lately. It is another of the juniors numerous ways of earning money. They also have a good list of movie dates, the first one coming Oct. 29, when Norma Talmaadger 'Kiki' will be shown. The group will have luncheon at the annual show of the Birmingham Gun Club.

FROM THE SIDELINES

Someone stepped on my toe," says Phil Henry, "it's all black." "Probably only dirt," replied Coach Johnson, thinking of the muddy field at Mt. Clemens.

Red is pretty good with two touchdowns to his credit. But don't let it go to your head, Dougherty, old man!

Harrison uses his head, at least he ran head-on into a Rochester man.

Rochester men couldn't find little George Cooney once when he was hiding behind one of their many knolls.

Wait until those tough babies from F. T. S. come next Friday. I hear they use Fords in tackling practice!

A great cheer went up from the spectators. "Here come the hot dogs!" they cried and rushed madly across the field before the game at Rochester.

Rumors have it, that the fog which came up near the end of the game was caused by Howard Tugger's inevitable pop.

Sssshhh, Folks, 'Tis A Desperate Mystery!

What unseen power is it that has so safeguarded the many windows in Baldwin High's gym?

ORDER OF RAINBOW PLAN CARD PARTY The second meeting of the season of the Order of the Rainbow for girls was held Wednesday. After the meeting, plans were made for a card party to be held Friday. Arrangements also were made for an informal dance to be held at the Masonic Temple.

An initiation will be held Wednesday. The new members to be taken in are: Margaret Smith, Blanche Bell, Irene Hannaworth, Dorothy Smith, Elizabeth Berger, Elizabeth Pollock, Romayne Thompson.

RESERVES LOSE FIRST GAME TO FERDALE

The Birmingham Reserve team was defeated a week ago by Ferndale Reserves, who scored on a field goal in the third quarter. Ferndale proved to be the aggressor, most of the game; the first half being played mostly in Baldwin's territory where Ferndale threatened to make a touchdown several times, once losing the ball to Birmingham only a foot from the goal line. The final score was 3-0.

WASHINGTON GROUP TO SELL MAGAZINES

A campaign for selling magazine subscriptions is started Monday, and will continue a week. At the meeting last Thursday of the Senior Washington group, plans were made for a very interesting contest among members. The group was divided into three teams, each having a leader. The team known as the Riders, are led by Cornelia Scharr, the Rogers, by Monelle Hoffman and the Rangers by Jane Shepherd, identified by colorful tassels, blue, green and red, respectively, worn by every member. At the close of the contest a party will be given the winners. The nature of this party has not been disclosed and will not be until the contest is over. This offer was made to the Seniors by the publishers of the magazine. Together with the generous offer is commensated made by the company and the diligence shown by the group, a profit of $250.00 is anticipated. Group Meets Wednesday. The Senior Washington Group held their first evening meeting Wednesday, Sept. 29. Proving successful, they will continue to be held on Wednesday evening throughout the year. Being unsuccessful in getting material, work on the Minster Show was not started but will begin at the next meeting. Several committees were appointed.

BALDWIN HI-Y TO BE ACTIVE

Following a banquet Tuesday at Oak Ridge for all groups of the Hi-Y clubs in this part of Oakland County, members of the Baldwin High School group are looking forward today to the steak roast at Wing Lake Tuesday.

Plans for the year's activities of members have been made and officers elected in June have assumed their duties.

They are: Claude Streb, president; George Cooney, vice; president; Ralph Thompson, secretary; and Harry Bradley, treasurer. Plans for a busy year include a council meeting expected to be held this month for the discussion of more members being taken into the club. It is also expected to be decided at that time what methods will be employed to raise money to carry on the activities of the organization.
