Miss Charlotte Metcalf Marries Dr. Montgomery; To Live in Detroit

One of the loveliest of the fall weddings was held at 8 p. m. at Calvary Presbyterian Church in Detroit, Saturday, when Miss Charlotte Metcalf, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, of Birmingham, was united in marriage to Dr. James Edward Montgomery, of Birmingham...

The church was beautiful with palms and ferns and flowers, with the party marked with white satin ribbons...

Miss Metcalf, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and white tulle, trimmed after the bouffant style, with a train of white satin and tulle...

Miss Etchel Moore, of Windsor, Ontario, attended the bride as maid of honor, and wore a dress of pale pink chiffon and cream lace and pearls...

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Emma Phillips, of Detroit, and Mrs. Helen Cross, of Halfway. They wore chiffon dresses of green and peach, respectively, and carried roses...

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Henry Clay Hotel for the immediate relatives...

Among those attending the wedding were guests from Flint, Lansdale, O., Cincinnati, O., and Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery were assisted by the bride's brother, Roy Montgomery, of Birmingham, and the groom's brother, Harris, of Detroit, seated the guests...
