

WE HEARD IT SAID BY

Little Editorial picked up by the Staff in and

R. L. Esig, of Buckingham road, recently returned from a tour of Europe...

TYPE OF STUDY IMPORTANT

Urging the many young persons of school age to return for the completion of their education...

With the beginning of the year, some promotions in business...

L. J. Bunyan, real estate: "Birmingham should have a hotel. There are so many tourists passing through here..."

H. J. Hammel, confessor: "I believe girls eat more candy than boys. They even buy more. They buy more candy than boys..."

L. J. Bunyan, real estate: "The Birmingham high school graduates are doing well. The average earning power of the college graduate is $10,000..."

George B. Boutwell, Lakeview avenue: "In the two weeks I was away from Birmingham, the Eccentric is out to get the live news and gets it..."

C. S. Kinnison, advertising manager, Hoak & Kinnison: "The Eccentric is to be complimented on putting out 20 page papers. For a village of this size, more able writers and hold to more wholesome ideals..."

RACE FINALS STARTED AT ORCHARD LAKE

Three Skippers Conclude Series; Next Sailing Oct. Sunday

Final heats for the 10 race series for the 1926 season at the Orchard Lake Yacht club are now under way...

A northerly wind with two days afternoon offered a good opportunity for windward racing...

Skippers Micou and Neff finished the last heat of the afternoon with a blow to bow race down the last leg of the course...

Special racing planned for Labor Day

What's Kept in a Policeman's Hat? Well, There Are No Moths, Anyway

Do you know what is inside a policeman's hat? (This is not an occasion for wire cracks...)

First there is a lining, a very unusual lining. It's made of a material called mosquito netting with a little round patch of old cloth in the exact center of the circle...

Clara are the chief goodies to be found under the hat (if they are in the proper category for cigars). "Candy moths," Serg. Clark Green explained, "you can't get 'em out of a policeman's hat..."

Have you ever had a subpoena for yourself?

the huge ice mountains can be seen on every hand. Visited New England. Mr. Boutwell, who just returned from a vacation in the English...

At the suggestion of Mr. Shain, a motion was passed which calls for a series of bi-monthly meetings with other clubs nearby throughout the winter...

EXCHANGITES TOLD OF SCHOOL AT HIS BY VIET

Many Talks Confront Educators in Development of Youth's Personality.

Development of a tangible personality in adolescent youth is one of the greatest tasks that confront the school...

Make Dreams Come True. School teachers today are facing the necessity of making youth's dreams come true...

Educators Awake To Needs. Boys and girls come up as they will here next week—with high hopes, idealistic dreams about the manner in which they will live...

We in the schools, therefore, best speak in the earnest best of all parents and citizens at the beginning of each school especially, to the end that we may not only start the twigs of potential men and women...
