SOCIETY

BUSY YEAR PLANNED BY VILLAGE P. T. A.'S IN WEEK'S MEETING

Pierce School Holds Annual Teachers Reception and Conducts Business

FLOWER SHOW ENJOYED

Parent-Teachers' associations of Birmingham are getting under way for the coming season. The Birmingham County Unit will hold its first meeting Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. at the Baldwin High School. C. C. Wilmott, president of the organization, will conduct a discussion on the work for this year.

A meeting of the executives of the Hill School P. T. A. was to be held at 3:30 p. m. today. Past and present executives and teachers will be present. The meeting will be of a purely business nature, with the first real social meeting sometime in October, according to Mrs. C. C. Whalen, president.

The annual teachers' reception was held by the Pierce School unit of the Parent-Teachers' association of Birmingham Thursday evening at the Pierce School, the first important P. T. A. event of the season.

An informal address of welcome, with several responding, was answered by Miss Anna Eilola on behalf of the teachers. Miss May Brumstead sang several songs. Refreshments were served by the mothers.

Outline Plans

During the business part of the meeting, the program committee gave a brief outline of its plans for the coming year, which promise to prove both interesting and educational.

The second meeting of this unit of the P. T. A. will be held Oct. 12, when a speaker from the Merrill Palmer School, in Detroit, will be present.

In connection with the reception an exhibition of garden flowers and vegetables raised by children of the fifth and sixth grades was given. Those children who competed were entertained in the afternoon by the garden committe, composed of Mrs. R. Ogden, Mrs. Charles Mason, Mrs. S. F. Wilson, H. Pollock, and Elmer House-Ogden. A very creditable showing was made for a first year's exhibit.

Joyce Mason's garden was selected by Superintendent Clarence Vliet as the best kept. Mrs. Ruth Shomin, principal of the school, Mrs. Ogden, and Russell Palmer judged the exhibit.

Double Award Made

A tie for the first place in the vegetable display between Donald De Vlieger and Charles Hunt resulted in a double award, through the courtesy of Mr. Palmer.

The award for the best display of flowers was made to Miss Leola Lundy. Other entrants with good showings in garden and display work were: Leo Ward, Peter Kliewer, Adelaide Pollock, Norman Pierson, Vesta Martin, Helen Campbell, Eleanor Potter, Velda Morris, Grace Buttermore, Dorothy Steffes and Lavon Wright.

Community House Completes Schedule

The schedule for the Community House activities for the coming week has been compiled by Miss Mary Griffith, the hostess, and Mrs. S. F. Trumbull, her assistant, as follows:

Tonight at 8 p. m. the civic Senate will hold a meeting. Tomorrow the house will be open.

The boys' club room will be open Saturday from 10 a. m. to 12, from 1 to 5 p. m., and from 7 to 9 p. m.

At 11 a. m., Sunday, the Church school will meet. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week are open days.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO AID MANY INVALID SOLDIERS

The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion is collecting canned fruit and jellies for the sick soldiers at the Camp Custer Hospital and the soldiers' orphans at Otter Lake. The Women of Birmingham are requested to bring any donation of canned fruit or jelly to the Bailey Smoke Shoppe, on E. Maple avenue, before Oct. 15.

Service Club Elects

The Service club met last week and elected officers for the coming year, as follows: B. J. Melrow, president; Ray Peck, vice-president; R. S. McBain, secretary; Percy Burnet, treasurer. Mr. Burnet, who served last year in the same capacity, was unanimously re-elected.

U. Women Meet

The Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Halgren, on Lakeview avenue.

Gives Luncheon

Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, of Pilgrim road, entertained Wednesday at a luncheon-bridge in honor of Mrs. Duke Mills, of Puritan road, who recently moved here from Chicago. The guests, besides Mrs. Mills, numbered eight: Mrs. Fred Healy, Mrs. Jack O'Sullivan, Mrs. Otis Helfrich, Mrs. C. J. Whirl, all of Birmingham, and Mrs. Charles Ford, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Neil McGinn, Mrs. Elmer Grierson, and Mrs. W. H. Larkin, of Detroit.

Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson, of Hazlewood avenue, was hostess at a small luncheon Tuesday honoring Mrs. Betsey Graves Heyneau. The other guests were Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. W. Nelson Whittemore.

The Philathea Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly business and social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Stevens, on the Thirteen and One-half Mile road.

Mrs. Fred Ross and Miss Margaret Ross, of Willetts road, entertained at a farewell bridge Thursday for some of the young people who are soon leaving for school. Among the guests were Miss Alice Vliet, Miss Helen Rosso, Miss Eleanor and Miss Margaret Rainey, Miss Dorothy Willsell, Miss Charlotte Whalen, Miss Virginia Hupp, and Miss Grace Campbell, of Detroit.

PEACE LEAGUE PLANS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Discuss Business And Hear Speaker At Its Second Meeting; To Expand.

The Birmingham branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Riley Fuller, 600 North Woodward avenue, Friday, with 15 members present.

New members are being sought by Miss Fuller, chairman, and it is planned to have a representative on the committee from each town and city nearby, including Royal Oak and Pontiac. It is also planned to hold meetings in each of the various towns, later. The chairman of the literature committee is Mrs. M. P. Schatz, at whose home in Detroit was held the first meeting of the Detroit branch of the W. I. L.

Set Meeting Date

Meetings will be held on the third Friday of the month, the next on October 15 at the home of Mrs. Fuller. The speaker at this meeting will be Miss Dorothy Detzer, executive secretary of the W. I. L., who returns from service in Europe. Miss Detzer did work with the Quakers in Austria and in Russia after the world war.

The special business of the branch at its meeting Friday was to consider several projects and make a choice from them. One plan adopted was to further the reading of Channing Pollock's play, "The Enemy," through competition essays by high school pupils.

The other project was to dress and send dolls as greetings of friendship to children of Japan. It is an idea sponsored by the committee on world friendship among children, instituted by the commission on International Justice and Goodwill of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Seek New Members

Every woman interested in this plan, whether a member of the W. I. L. or not, is urged to write immediately for instructions to Mrs. Rosalie Ashton, director of the doll project, at the Doll Travel Bureau, 289 Fourth avenue, New York City.

Local Doll Day is Oct. 1, when it is expected that dolls will be exhibited by local merchants. An exhibit of the dolls, dressed and ready to send, will be held on November 11, Armistice Day; the place will be announced later.

Mrs. Verne Burnett, of Brookside drive, entertained 12 guests at bridge Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. G. Wall was hostess to six guests at luncheon Friday at her home on Euclid avenue.

Mrs. D. Trevegno, of Cadillac, is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Connine, of Ravine road.

Mrs. Howard Holden, of Jackson, Ga., spent last week-end with Mrs. Frederick E. Good, at her home on Buckingham road.

Miss Agnes Pinault returned last week to her home in Rochester, N. Y., after spending a month with her sister, Mrs. James D. Griffinn, of Ridgedale avenue.

Mrs. Ward Gavitt and her son, Jack, have returned from a motor trip through Wisconsin and with Mr. Gavitt are living in their new home at 612 Rivenoak avenue. They recently have moved to Birmingham from Vinsetta Park.

Mrs. Clarence V. Hemstreet, of Brown street, left Monday for an extended visit in the East. She accompanied her daughter, Grace and Miss Muriel Johnstone as far as Jenkintown, Pa., where the girls have entered Beaver College for Women.

Miss Johnnie Bell, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. Curtis Bowling, of Bloomfield Court, returned this week to her home in Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Bowling and her two children left this week for an extended visit in Phoenix, Ariz.

Arrangements for the annual steeple chase to be held on Oakdale Farm, the E. P. Hammond place, Saturday, October 23, are well under way. There are to be five races. The committee reports excellent entries already on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Miller, of Willetts avenue, and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, of Farmington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter German at their home in Holloway. Mr. and Mrs. German are former residents of Birmingham.

Mrs. Max S. Glover, of North Woodward avenue, entertained Mrs. J. E. Welch, of Bloomfield Highlands, Mrs. T. B. Smith, Mrs. Seymour Adams, Mrs. Guy W. Jensen, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Mrs. L. N. Pyle, and Mrs. William Wall, at a bridge luncheon recently.

Mrs. L. E. Barton, formerly of St. Louis, and her niece, Miss Ruth Cooper, of St. Louis, are the house guests of Mrs. Barton's daughter, Mrs. Carlton Asper, at her home on Ravine road. Mrs. Barton is returning to Florida, where she will reside at Bellevue.

Mrs. Anna B. McDonnell and her son, J. Phillip McDonnell, of Detroit, have taken up their permanent residence at 206 Oak Street. Mr. McDonnell is the architect for the model English village being built by William T. Barbour at Woodward avenue and Long Lake road.

Birmingham Lodge No. 149, Knights of Pythias, reopened Tuesday evening after their summer vacation, with all chairs full. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, opening at 8 and closing at 9 p. m. Doughnuts and cider will be served.

Mrs. Guy W. Jensen will be hostess at a tea tomorrow afternoon at her home on Madison avenue for the Missionary Guild of the First Presbyterian Church. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. K. Poppleton, Mrs. K. D. Olson, Mrs. E. G. Potter, Mrs. J. E. Martin and Mrs. L. W. Porter.

Mrs. Charles Buck is entertaining at dinner tomorrow evening at her home on Chesterfield road. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Park Smith, of Chesterfield avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Emil G. Olin, of Southfield avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright, of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olin, of Wallace avenue.

The four children of Mrs. Lloyd Stanley of Madison Avenue, along with 17 friends, made up the birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Stanley's daughter, Lorraine, Saturday afternoon. The many children-friends of Lorraine were feasted with delicious cakes and cookies which were served at a large table decorated in yellow.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Deer entertained Mrs. J. LaBurgey, a former resident of Birmingham, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barley, of Rochester, N. Y., are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. David Roy at their home on Brown street.

Thomas J. Edwards, Jr., son of the Rev. T. J. Edwards, left Saturday for Chicago, where he will enter the law school of the University of Chicago.

Clinton George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben George, of Merrill street, left Monday for Lansing where he will take up his studies at Michigan State College.

Mrs. C. R. Wilson, of Willetts avenue, left Tuesday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Commission on Missions in New York City. She will be gone several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green returned last week to their home in Madison, N. J., after spending six weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Fairbanks, of Yorkshire road.

A surprise party last Friday evening marked the seventy-fifth birthday of John McCarroll, of Ridgedale avenue. Twenty-four guests gathered at the home of his daughter, Miss Margaret McCarroll, to do him honor.

Mrs. Charles Brady, of Madison avenue, entertained Mrs. James Braun, of Bloomfield, Mrs. Charles Becker, and Mrs. B. Newhoss, of Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. W. Glass and Mrs. F. Sevald, of Detroit, at the Detroit Golf Club Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah W. Fuller, of Detroit, arrived last week to spend a few days with Mrs. Sarah Aldrich, at her home on Pierce street, and with Mrs. Edgar Parks, of Pierce street. Mrs. Fuller is a former Birmingham resident.

BLOOMFIELD TRI-WEEKLY HUNTS ARE POPULAR

The regular hunts Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday mornings at the Bloomfield Hunt club are bringing out an enthusiastic crowd. Between 30 and 40 mounts are out every time.

Among those regularly attending are Mrs. E. P. Hammond and her family, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Nichols (Mr. Nichols is Master of the Hunt), Gordon Mendenhall, Mrs. H. L. BLOOMFIELD PEOPLE MISS FLORIDA STORM

Mrs. Robert Kolsbun, formerly Miss Mary Walker of The Eccentric staff, was a victim of the storm was found to be incorrect. Her sister, Miss Helen Walker, also a former member of the staff, said over long distance telephone from Toledo that her sister had left the territory a short time before the storm, which had its origin in West Africa, struck Florida. Word received by the Walker family from Mrs. Kolsbun assured them that she was safe.

ANNUAL SCHOOL PARTY TO BE HELD TOMORROW

A banquet and masked party will be held tomorrow night at 6:30 at the Baldwin High School by the freshman classes of the Junior high school.

Singing and dancing will be the order of the evening. "The general idea is to have a get-acquainted party," Clarence Vliet, superintendent of schools, said. About 400 are expected to be present. Miss Magdalene Frederick, principa of the Adams School, is on the committee.
