

CHILDREN'S BOOKS ADDED TO SHELVES OF BALDWIN LIBRARY

Prepare for Heavy Calls During Fall and Winter Months

ALSO SUPPLY FOR ADULTS

Fifty-six new books have been added to the public library within the past week, according to the list submitted by Miss Blanche C. Kerus, librarian. All are on the shelves and ready for circulation today.

Of these 48 are juvenile books gathered for the winter months to supply enough material for the many children who patronize the Baldwin Library. There are two fiction books and six books of non-fiction.

The large addition to the children's part of the library makes this one of the most complete, containing a line of books that offers the young reader variety in the widest scope.

Those added during the week follow:

Mary Lewis used to be an Arkansas choir singer. Then she became a Broadway chorus girl. Now she is with the Metropolitan Opera Co. This picture was taken when she returned from abroad recently.

DR. H. ERICHSEN LEAVES PRACTICE FOR LITERATURE

Former Newspaper Man And Magazine Writer To Resume Old Work.

Dr. Hugo Erichsen, of Harmon Ave., has resigned as the director of the medical service of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company. A position that he held for eight years, and will henceforth devote his entire time to literary pursuits. Before going to the Burroughs Company he was connected with the medical staff of Parke, Davis & Company for 19 years. In his younger years he served as a reporter on the staff of the Detroit News, state editor of the Detroit Journal, and managing editor of the Detroit Commercial Advertiser. As a magazine writer he has contributed to the columns of the Cosmopolitan, Country Life in America, Woman's Home Companion, Scientific American, and other periodicals. Although 56, he does not believe in being idle.

SIX WOMEN NAMED FOR REGISTRATION BOARD

Six women were appointed to serve on the registration boards Oct. 9, registration day, at the meeting of the village commission Monday night. Mrs. Winifred Burkman and Mrs. Blanch White will have charge of precinct No. 1, Mrs. Blanch Blumberg and Mrs. Stella Edgar, of precinct No. 2, and Mrs. Rose Laughlin and Mrs. Agnes Wilson of precinct No. 3. They will be on duty all day at their respective booths.
