MARQUIS-BALANTYNE WEDDING CEREMONY OF GREAT BEAUTY Flowers Decorate St. Paul's Cathedral; Bride's Father Officiates At Service

MAKE EUROPEAN TOUR

One of the loveliest weddings of the season took place at 8:20 last Saturday evening when Miss Gertrude Lee Marquis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Marquis of Lone Pine road, became the bride of Ronald Ballantyne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ballantyne, Detroit, at St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit. Dr. Marquis, the bride's father, read the service.

Quantities of white gladioli and cyclamen flowers decorated the cathedral, and the pews were marked with wide white satin ribbons. Miss Marquis, who was given in marriage by her brother, Rogers Marquis, was in a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a tight fitting bodice and full skirt adorned with a deep belt of rose point lace. Her gown was sleeveless, with soft lace forming a deep V in front and back. An eight-inch train of satin lined the long tulle veil, which was fastened at the head with strands of pearls entwined and all carried in a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

She is Matron The bride's sister, Mrs. John P. Carrige, Jr., the former Miss Barbara Carrige, attended the ceremony in gown of honor. She wore a delight ful chiffon gown, flesh colored, made on straight lines with a wide white tulle band around the bottom of the skirt. Her hat was of flesh and gold tulle with a wide white veil and long tulle veil, which was fastened at the head with strands of pearls entwined and all carried in a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Men in Party Mrs. Marquis, the mother of the bride wore a sleeveless, straight-line gown of light green and silver, and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Ballantyne, the groom's mother, was gowned in black lace over cream color. Her corsage was of Pernet roses.
