WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

(Little Editorials picked up by the Staff & sent around Birmingham.)
Morris Levinson, real estate: "I have noticed a vast improvement in the Birmingham Eclectic in the last few weeks. The news is right up to the minute. There seems to be more enthusiasm, more pep. It makes me proud to think that my home paper is doing so wonderfully well. I wish The Eclectic all the success in the world."
Clark Green, local policeman: "The new blotter system is working out great. This system of keeping records of all the police work done every day on file where we can get at them at a moment's notice is a good idea. It should prove to be a big time saver."
Charles A. Bingham, local business: "In view of the coming primary election I desire, at this time to call the attention of the voters of this community to the candidacy of Clyde D. Underwood for second term as prosecuting attorney for this county. He is a clean cut young man with enviable record in office and deserves the support of every voter in the county. In all his dealings he is extremely fair, representing no class or faction but the best interests of all the people. To cast a vote for him is a recognition of good service, and by doing so you are supporting a fearless and competent county official."
Miss Mary Clarke Griffith, hostess of the Community House: "It's great to be back in Birmingham after being East all summer, at my home. Birmingham has more of the charm of the New England towns than any place I have ever visited outside of New England. Everybody is so congenial and pleasant that it is really a joy to work here."
E. W. Lackie, manager Credit Bureau: "Several disinterested persons recently have said they think Chamber of Commerce here would be an ideal addition to the village."

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP PREPARES FOR LARGEST VOTE IN HISTORY

To secure a zoning ordinance that will prevent subdividers from plating cheap city lots, thereby spoiling the beauty of the district; To preserve as much of the rural atmosphere as possible; To prevent places of business from being scattered about the hills; To make Bloomfield Center, at Woodward Avenue and Long Lake Road, the civic center of the village; To make Bloomfield Hills the most beautiful village in the county.

Charter Commission. If this is passed the voters would have as members of the charter commission, Luther D. Allen, William T. Barber, Frank L. Bromley, Harry Dealings and George E. Roehm. These men would immediately draw up a charter.

Some of the residents who have announced themselves in favor of the incorporation are: Many D. Davis, H. A. O'Dell, Bert Morley, Walter G. Morley, Frank L. Bromley, O. S. Price, Henry S. Booth, Geo. E. Roehm, Ralph L. Polk, T. R. Donovan, Harry L. Wallace, W. H. Beamer, Wm. H. Traub, J. H. Murry, Morris J. Murry, Luther D. Allen, W. G. Harry, Mrs. S. V. Norton, Agnes R. Polk, Ella P. NEW SMOKE SHOP TO OPEN HERE SOON

The rumor that Birmingham is to have a "Smoke Shop" was confirmed by Gordon Bailey, former owner of the concession in the D. U. R. waiting room, who is opening such an establishment on West Maple avenue in the store space formerly occupied by Charles Peck, tailor, who recently moved into his Woodward avenue store. The shop will be open before Sept. 15 and will carry a complete line.

We, the undersigned, a few of the many business men of the City and Township of Royal Oak, hereby endorse

ALBERT W. WILLSON

Republican candidate for the office of Oakland County Treasurer.

We have been impressed with the efficient manner in which he has carried out his work as Supervisor of the Township of Royal Oak and are confident he will carry with him, if elected, the same sincerity, loyalty and capability to the office of County Treasurer.
