CHAPEL SCENE OF WEDDING

Miss Marie McDough Marries Max Ego

The Chapel of the Holy Name was the scene of a beautiful formal church wedding yesterday morning when Miss Marie McDough, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDough, of Martin street, one of the popular members of Birmingham's younger set, was united in marriage to Max Ego, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ego, of Pleasant. The Rev. Fr. William Ryan read the marriage vows at 9:30 a. m.

The chapel was lovely with flowers, orchid and peach colored gladioli forming the color scheme. Mrs. James Oliver, of Villa road, sang at the services, and Miss Irene Mosley, of Royal Oak, played the wedding march and hymn.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen McDough, whose dress harmonized beautifully with the floral decorations. Kermit Walker, of Detroit, assisted the bride, and Dr. Detroit seated the guests.

The bride was gown in white satin and wore a gorgeous full veil. Mr. McDough gave his daughter in marriage. A reception was held in the chapel and the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ego left by motor for Saginaw Bay, whence they will drive on through Michigan for three weeks. They will be at home to their friends following their honeymoon at their new home on Purdy street.

SOCIETY SHOWS INTEREST IN EXHIBIT

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Society is taking a keen interest in the third annual flower show of the Grose Point and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society, to be held Thursday and Friday, Sept. 8 and 9, at the Neighborhood club, 60 Oak street. Grose Point farms and W. Nelson Whittemore will have exhibits at the show.

Mrs. Edwin Scott Barbour, president of the Garden club of Michigan, will open the exhibition formally at 5 p. m. Thursday. The schedule covers more than 100 classes, in which keen competition is expected. Exhibits will also be made by some of the private gardens in this section as well as in Palmer Woods and Grose Point. This will be the last gathering in the old Neighborhood club.

Mrs. F. C. Polmeyer, of Kensington road, will be hostess today at a delightful bridge luncheon at her home. There will be 16 guests seated at luncheon at one long table, lovely with callulidia, marigold and gladioli. Tomorrow evening, Mrs. Polmeyer will have 20 guests at dinner in honor of her birthday.

FRANKLIN GAME IS POSTPONED

The baseball game Monday between the Franklin Sunday School baseball team and the Birmingham Methodist team was called for a count of darkness with the score tie. The game will be played Tuesday evening, Aug. 29 at 6:15 p. m. sharp.

Most interest centers in this game as the Birmingham Methodistists still have a chance to tie the Franklin team in the Y. M. C. A. Championship League. On Saturday at 2:30 p. m., Franklin will play the Birmingham Cubs at Barium Field, in Birmingham. This is the deciding game of a series between these two teams, each having won and lost a game. Keen rivalry exists always when these clubs meet and a battle royal is expected.

VILLAGE BOYS TOURING WEST

John Palmer and Donald Gore, Birmingham boys and students at Baldwin High School, who have been touring the west since last week's car are expected home in a few days. Their trip will have extended over about four weeks, the two boys leaving Birmingham on Aug. 8.

Letters written home by the boys tell of a trip up Pike's Peak, the farthest western point they reached, and the latest message from Mr. Palmer, who is at the Palmer, 318 East Maple avenue, reported that they had returned east as far as Iowa.

Many Present At Family Reunion

"The Thief of Bagdad," featuring Douglas Fairbanks, the last moving picture of the series being given this morning at Cranbrook Theater by the League of St. James Women, will be shown Friday night, or, if the weather is bad, Saturday night. This picture, one of the most extensive ever made, shows a few of the magic possibilities of the moving picture. The picturing of the fairy tale has gone down in moving picture history as one of the world's most beautiful and effective bits of picture work ever done. The rope which would hang on nothing, the winged horse, Pegasus, and the wonderful magic carpet make this tale a fascinating reality for the children. And Fairbanks, himself, as the thief, is, of course, in his element.

The pictures which have been shown this month under the auspices of the League, have met with unusual success. The attendance has averaged more than 200 for each of them. News reels and music have been supplied each Friday evening in connection with the feature picture. The money raised by these movies will go into the organ fund of the church.

Mrs. Gertrude Burneth and Mrs. Eather Erickson, of the Taylor Beauty Shop, are leaving tomorrow for Cleveland to attend the National Hairdressers' Convention. Mrs. Burneth will go as Birmingham delegate.
