BOYS' AND, GIRLS' CLUBS

NO on women thaving for its object the betterment of rural life is worthy of more encouragement and failport than that of forming and maintaining boys and girls' clubs. It is gratifying to observe that the movement is spreading rapidly, and that more whan half a million young people on the farms of the country are enrolled in clubs sponiored by the federal government alone.

In a recent review by the Department of Agriculture it was shown, that cive bodies, fair committees, bankers and individual business men in many states that property in the conducting of their own menting the projects included in the club program.

THEPATH

A narrow path goes winding through the corn, Then on, out where the grass grows, wild and high And brushes on the clothes of passersby. All wet with sparkling dew at early morn. Some view the little path with quier scorn. Then choose the gravel road that passes nigh, So smooth and clear and straight, it seems to vie. And leave the path of every virtue shorn.

Today I walked along the grass grown path.
A great brown toad was at his morning bath.
I found some wild flowers and a swarm of bee
A bird's next almost hidden in the trees,
Some broken dishes and a battered toy,
Ah little path, you shark in many a joy!

An OLD-TIME CONQUEROR

Nine hundred years ago, in 10.27 (some say 10.28), including the state, and their friends and sympathisers are loud in protest. Their just and she tenence gained international publicity of intense volume and their frames will live a great deal longer in death than in life. It not capital punishment in this instance a great will live a great deal longer in death than in life. It not capital punishment in this instance a great deal more part in death than in life. It not capital punishment in this instance a great is as committed murder. Do the means justify the lends. Has society benefited or has it been harmond by this act?

The answer seems obvious. The harm it has done itself can never be measured. And this is true of a former compact with Harold, earl of Wesser, being and the state kills, a man has, committed murder. Do the means justify the lends. Has society benefited or has it been harmond by this act?
