Franklin Village

A NUMBER of well known people, most of whom can live where they choose, are purchising homestes in Frankin Village, which indicates that they have pribably come to the conclusion that life in the country is better and fuller for those who love hills and open landscapes, a

For those who love hills and open landscapes, a mope satisfactory dutrict is not to be found. The restrictions are, of course, in closest harm-ony with those of neighboring developments, and though Franklin Village is agreeably se-cluded, it is at the same time surprisingly access-
