What Of A Dance Hall?

Do the people of Birmingham want a dance hall here? They probably will be called upon to express an opinion on this score before long, following the announcement last week that a large auditorium of this nature is proposed.

A Fine Loyalty

From the number of Birmingham persons who traveled to Royal Oak Thanksgiving Day to see the Detroit High School football team, it is evident that the interest in athletics here is constantly on the increase.

Changing Attitudes

Daily newspapers are giving over considerable space in their columns to the Halldeman-Bus family of Girard, Kas., because of its "trial marriage." They are trying something new, hence they are the subject of interesting gazes, like the man who first flew over the Atlantic, or the first girl to adopt lipstick as media toward feminine pulchritude.

Thanks, Mr. O'Brien!

Good, old Pat O'Brien, for more than 50 years a newspaper publisher in Michigan, and for much of that time located at Iron River, in the Upper Peninsula, is the last issue of his Iron River Reporter, let loose some flattering remarks about Birmingham and the Eccentric.

The Other Chap

It eats one up. Prohibition is being so much thought of in this country in many angles that one is likely to lose sight of the fact that prohibition is a social evil.
