HILLS COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Mrs. Carlotta Coats and Stanley Vahey Announce Aug. 24 Wedding

Announcement is made today of the marriage Aug. 24 in South Bend, Ind., of Mrs. Carlotta Coats and Stanley C. Vahey, both of Bloomfield Hills village. The couple were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Carlotta Banta.

The announcement comes as a surprise to the many friends in this locality of the bride and groom. Mrs. Stanley Vahey was chief operator of the Birmingham exchange of the Michigan Bell Telephone company for many years. She was transferred last summer to the same position in the city of Chicago.

Mr. Vahey is the son of the late Ernest C. Vahey and Mrs. Lattie of Bloomfield Hills village. He is designing engineer with the steelmaker corporation of South Bend, Ind.

The couple plan to make their home with the groom's mother, who, within a week, will occupy her new residence at 123 Gray court.

THESE FEW REMAINING DAYS

UNDOUBTEDLY there are some games on your list that have been giving you considerable trouble as to what would be best in the way of gifts for them. Certain parties demand, because of unusual characteristics and idiosyncrasies, Christmas presentations of distinctive nature, original conception, and unique workmanship. Fruitless search has resulted in your efforts to meet the requirements of this gift problem. But don't despair—we can probably show you something in five minutes that you have been seeking for a week or more. In the remaining few days you will profit by an excursion to this shop.
