

Greetings

THE Christmas Season always brings to us the realization of the many friends we have in Birmingham and vicinity. In appreciation of their patronage in past years we wish them all the joy that goes with the Holiday.

BOY SCOUT TROOP HAS CELEBRATION

B3 Presents Gifts To Scoutmasters At Annual Christmas Party

Troop B3 of the Birmingham Boy Scouts held its annual Christmas party in the Baldwin cafeteria last night. A complete supper was served. A Christmas tree and decorations helped the festive spirit, and after dinner gifts were exchanged among the Scouts.

The troop made its annual presentation to H. D. Crull and Merlyn Smiley, Scoutmaster and assistant, respectively. This year's gifts was a pair of scout blankets for hikes and cold camp-nights. Each member of the troop committee was presented with miniature lapel pins in the form of the troop committee's official insignia.

Melvin C. Hart, principal of the high school, and a member of the troop committee, led a series of songs.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS

Byron Jennings, 615 Hazeton street, Flint, and H. Haper, 1141 Ann Arbor street, Flint were arrested Sunday by Patrolman Edward Myers for drunkenness. Each was fined $10 when they appeared before Justice Malcolm Hunt Monday.

HEALTH EXAMS. SOON TO START

Dr. Newitt Ready To Take Survey Of School Children's Health Record

Health examination permission slips are in the hands of the parents of the Adams School children for signature today. Dr. A. W. Newitt, health officer said.

Health examinations of the children who have the written consent of their parents will begin the first of the year, he said. Records of the health condition of each child will be kept by the village health department and by the school board.

Examinations will begin at the other schools as soon as they are completed at the Adams, he said.

Women inmates of the almshouse in Bushford, Eng., are to be given modern dress, the skirts being shortened to save money.

Doris Dagg, 6-year-old California girl, broke the toe-dancing record by spinning 45 times continuously on one toe.

Onetta McCoy, 3, recently traveled alone from Mobile to Detroit under the auspices of the Travelers' Aid organization.
