

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

VILLAGE HILLS AID HOUSE IN MAKING CHRISTMAS MERRY

Individuals and organizations of Birmingham made it possible for the Community House to spread more Christmas cheer this year than ever before according to Miss Mary Clark Griffith, hostess.

Mrs. Lloyd Reed was chairman of the committee which kept open house Christmas eve at the Community House for all passers-by who wished to stop. They were ready to serve tea to those who had been out making others cheerful. Mrs. Reed was assisted by Mrs. Hugh Purdy, Mrs. Seymour Adams, Mrs. Hattie Schlaack and Miss Susan Frowbridge.

The Christmas tree which was planted in the yard of the Community House for all to enjoy was the gift of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Black. Emerson Brown planted it and will see that it is moved to its permanent location on the site of the new Community House. The wiring was done by the Detroit Edison company and the service lines were loaned by the Leonard Electric company.

Tree is Decorated

The tree and the House were decorated by a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Duncan, Harvey Whalen, Miss Jane Wall, Miss Jane Shepard, Miss Marjorie Grace Porter, Miss Dorothy Gail, Max Gail, and Miss Laura Barr. The grocery used in the decorations of the House were furnished by E. J. Miner and Ralph I. Coryell.

The 66 baskets sent out from the Community House were supplied from gifts by individuals and organizations. The Pontiac Dairy company furnished milk; chocolate and sugar was furnished by the Miner Grocery company. B. F. Martin gave 36 loaves of bread and William G. Olsen sold the milk for the baskets at wholesale price. Cakes were furnished by Mrs. Margaret Bell, Miss Susan Trowbridge, Mrs. J. B. Howarth, Mrs. Robert Christie, Mrs. R. C. Disser, Mrs. Harlow Davock, Mrs. C.

BOY CAROLLERS HELP MAKE CHRISTMAS GAY

Boys will be boys and not let the girls get the better of them. Six youths from the Baldwin High School, headed by the girl carollers and their Christmas eve plans. Not to be outdone they journeyed to Bloomfield Hills and sang to the girls. During that time they collected $13.40. This was promptly turned over to the Community House and used for Christmas work. These boys are: George Waszy, George Wilson, Albert Voss, Jr., Douglas Reinhart, R. C. Hupp, Jr., and Harlow Davock.

The girls were directed by Mrs. Robert Grindly and Mrs. Robert Gilray. After caroling the girls returned to the Community House where they staged a Christmas party and were served refreshments by the open-house committee.

ROTARIANS PLAN DINNER-DANCE

Date For Affair set at January 5; Program is Arranged

The Fox and Hounds Inn will be the scene of the Rotary club dinner-dance Jan. 5 for members of the club their wives and guests. Dinner will be served at 7 p. m., and a program of music and talks is planned. Music for the dancing, which will begin at 9 p. m., will be furnished by a Detroit orchestra. Favors will be given the guests.

Women To Attend League Dinner

Members of the Birmingham branch of the National Woman's party are invited to attend the tea to be given at the Twentieth Century club building, Detroit, Jan. 3. The tea is to honor the memory of Miss Lucretia Mott, pioneer feminist, on the anniversary of her birthday.

The guests of honor at the tea will be Miss Francis Larpierre, leading lady of "Chicago" now playing at a Detroit theater. The speakers at the tea will be Debra W. Gaffill who will speak on "Woman's Bill of Rights, 1848," and Kathleen Hendrie who has as her subject "Woman's Bill of Rights, 1927."
