

ADDITIONAL ORDINANCE

Start Move To New Library After 34 Years On One Site

Patrons of the Baldwin Public Library will be asked to move today to the second floor of the new municipal building from the old site on Woodward avenue. The new building, which has been under construction for 34 years, and the village will be without library service for a few days.

The Baldwin Public Library, which has been on Woodward avenue since 1893, is being moved to the second floor of the new municipal building, which is being constructed on Woodward avenue. The new building, which has been under construction for 34 years, and the village will be without library service for a few days.

The Baldwin Public Library, which has been on Woodward avenue since 1893, is being moved to the second floor of the new municipal building, which is being constructed on Woodward avenue. The new building, which has been under construction for 34 years, and the village will be without library service for a few days.

LAW CLAIMS

Financing plans for the new Baldwin Public Library, which is being moved to the second floor of the new municipal building, have been approved by the city council. The new building, which has been under construction for 34 years, and the village will be without library service for a few days.

The Baldwin Public Library, which has been on Woodward avenue since 1893, is being moved to the second floor of the new municipal building, which is being constructed on Woodward avenue. The new building, which has been under construction for 34 years, and the village will be without library service for a few days.

GROUP STUDY ON CITY PLAN IS APPROVED

Representatives from Village Organizations To Report Findings

The planning commission will tell the village commission today that it has approved a group study on the city plan. The study, which was conducted by a committee of representatives from various village organizations, has found that the current city plan is outdated and needs to be revised.

The planning commission will tell the village commission today that it has approved a group study on the city plan. The study, which was conducted by a committee of representatives from various village organizations, has found that the current city plan is outdated and needs to be revised.

BOARD IS UNANIMOUS

The planning commission will tell the village commission today that it has approved a group study on the city plan. The study, which was conducted by a committee of representatives from various village organizations, has found that the current city plan is outdated and needs to be revised.

The planning commission will tell the village commission today that it has approved a group study on the city plan. The study, which was conducted by a committee of representatives from various village organizations, has found that the current city plan is outdated and needs to be revised.

MAN BLAMELESS IN AUTO DEATH

Hoyt Brown Exonerated In Fatal Injuries To Detroit Worker

Hoyt Brown, 26, 5419 Pierce street, Detroit, has been exonerated in the fatal injuries to a Detroit worker. The victim, Edward E. Turner, was killed when his car was struck by a truck driven by Brown.

Hoyt Brown, 26, 5419 Pierce street, Detroit, has been exonerated in the fatal injuries to a Detroit worker. The victim, Edward E. Turner, was killed when his car was struck by a truck driven by Brown.

SENATOR COUZENS TO GET FIRST FORD

Senator James Couzens, of Birmingham, will receive the first of the new Ford Model T cars. The car, which was ordered by Couzens, is expected to arrive in Birmingham soon.

Senator James Couzens, of Birmingham, will receive the first of the new Ford Model T cars. The car, which was ordered by Couzens, is expected to arrive in Birmingham soon.

SIGNS ORDERED DRIVE FOR SAFE STREETS

School and Village Officials Move to Save Lives of Children

Attention is being given to the safety of streets in Birmingham, especially in the schools neighborhood. Signs have been ordered to be placed at various intersections to warn drivers of children.

School and Village Officials Move to Save Lives of Children

TRAFIC VIGIL URGED

Attention is being given to the safety of streets in Birmingham, especially in the schools neighborhood. Signs have been ordered to be placed at various intersections to warn drivers of children.

Attention is being given to the safety of streets in Birmingham, especially in the schools neighborhood. Signs have been ordered to be placed at various intersections to warn drivers of children.

ROBBER AGAIN AT WORK HERE

Take Money From Clothes In Homes While Owners Sleep

A robbery in which a burglar entered a home and stole clothing while the owners were asleep. The burglar was caught by the police and is now in custody.

A robbery in which a burglar entered a home and stole clothing while the owners were asleep. The burglar was caught by the police and is now in custody.

BOARD BLOCKS WIDENING

No Action To Be Taken On Willett Or Hamilton Avenue Projects

The board of public works has blocked the widening of Willett and Hamilton avenues. The board has decided that the current plans are not in the best interests of the city.

The board of public works has blocked the widening of Willett and Hamilton avenues. The board has decided that the current plans are not in the best interests of the city.

MAN CHASES CHIEF, THEN PAYS $10 FINE

That it had for a motorist to chase a chief of police in his own police station was learned this week by Joseph Tynce, Cleveland, Ohio, who was fined $10 by Justice Malcolm Hunt here on a reckless driving charge.

That it had for a motorist to chase a chief of police in his own police station was learned this week by Joseph Tynce, Cleveland, Ohio, who was fined $10 by Justice Malcolm Hunt here on a reckless driving charge.

ANOTHER EXTENSION GRANTED GUN OWNERS

The fourth extension of the time limit on registration of pistols for Birmingham residents was announced today by Police Chief James Anderson, following word received from the State Department of Safety. The latest deadline is Jan. 1.

The fourth extension of the time limit on registration of pistols for Birmingham residents was announced today by Police Chief James Anderson, following word received from the State Department of Safety. The latest deadline is Jan. 1.

SAFETY MOVE MADE IN HILLS

Commission Acts To Avoid Registration Of Car Auto, Street-Car Crash

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

STEPS TAKEN FOR MUNICIPAL BUILDING HERE

Commission Authorizes Advertising For Bids On Civic Center Edifice

PLANS NOW COMPLETE

Following approval given by the village commission, advertising is going ahead today for bids for the construction of the new municipal building which is proposed to be constructed on the civic center property. Frank Erick, of Burroughs & Farish, Detroit architects, submitted plans for the building to the commission Monday night, which were approved.

Following approval given by the village commission, advertising is going ahead today for bids for the construction of the new municipal building which is proposed to be constructed on the civic center property. Frank Erick, of Burroughs & Farish, Detroit architects, submitted plans for the building to the commission Monday night, which were approved.

Plans for the new municipal building, which is to be constructed on the civic center property, have been approved by the village commission. The building is expected to be completed in the near future.

Plans for the new municipal building, which is to be constructed on the civic center property, have been approved by the village commission. The building is expected to be completed in the near future.

THIEVES TAKE COAT WHILE WORSHIPER ATTENDS SERVICES

At St. Phillips, 509 Ridgeland avenue, reported to police that his overcoat valued at more than $50, was stolen from the coat room at the First Methodist Church while he was attending the services Sunday morning. The coat was found by the police and returned to the owner.

At St. Phillips, 509 Ridgeland avenue, reported to police that his overcoat valued at more than $50, was stolen from the coat room at the First Methodist Church while he was attending the services Sunday morning. The coat was found by the police and returned to the owner.

SEEK ACTION ON G. T. ROAD

City Representatives Discuss Methods Of Locating New Route

Seeking to map out a plan to assist the state in speeding up the actual relocation of the present Grand Trunk tracks, between Royal Oak and a point just north of Birmingham, representatives of the Oakland County road commission, including Mayor Harold E. Storz in Royal Oak Tuesday afternoon, Luther D. Allen, member of the Oakland County road commission and president of Bloomfield Hills Village, was elected chairman of the group.

Seeking to map out a plan to assist the state in speeding up the actual relocation of the present Grand Trunk tracks, between Royal Oak and a point just north of Birmingham, representatives of the Oakland County road commission, including Mayor Harold E. Storz in Royal Oak Tuesday afternoon, Luther D. Allen, member of the Oakland County road commission and president of Bloomfield Hills Village, was elected chairman of the group.

POLICE WARN ICE-SKATERS

Quarton Lake Not Yet Safe For Winter Sports, Officers Report

Police today issue a warning to the hundreds of ice skaters who have availed themselves of the opportunity to use Quarton Lake for early winter sports.

Police today issue a warning to the hundreds of ice skaters who have availed themselves of the opportunity to use Quarton Lake for early winter sports.

SAFETY MOVE MADE IN HILLS

Commission Acts To Avoid Registration Of Car Auto, Street-Car Crash

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

SAFETY MOVE MADE IN HILLS

Commission Acts To Avoid Registration Of Car Auto, Street-Car Crash

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

Moving to prevent future accidents at the Trowbridge crossing between the Birmingham and Birmingham Hills, the village commission has ordered all street cars to come to a full stop before making the crossing.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED TODAY FOR A. T. KELSEY

A bench warrant was issued today for Arthur T. Kelsey, former druggist, 717 Riverchase avenue, following his failure to appear for arraignment before Judge Frank L. Covert in circuit court on a serious charge Monday. The judge ordered the $1,500 bond posted for Kelsey's appearance forfeited.

A bench warrant was issued today for Arthur T. Kelsey, former druggist, 717 Riverchase avenue, following his failure to appear for arraignment before Judge Frank L. Covert in circuit court on a serious charge Monday. The judge ordered the $1,500 bond posted for Kelsey's appearance forfeited.

HOUSE BOARDS TO DISCUSS PLAN

Architects Sketches of Proposed New Community House Will Be Submitted Tonight

A meeting is planned for tonight to discuss the health, department and various boards of the Community House to discuss plans for the new building. The architects' sketches of the proposed new center is being shown to the members of the Community House boards. No date has yet been set for the start of the drive.

A meeting is planned for tonight to discuss the health, department and various boards of the Community House to discuss plans for the new building. The architects' sketches of the proposed new center is being shown to the members of the Community House boards. No date has yet been set for the start of the drive.

GET SOME EXTRA MONEY

Between now and Merry Christmas, you can get extra money by purchasing the Yale season. You will get extra money by purchasing the Yale season. You will get extra money by purchasing the Yale season.

Between now and Merry Christmas, you can get extra money by purchasing the Yale season. You will get extra money by purchasing the Yale season. You will get extra money by purchasing the Yale season.