

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

PRE-HOLIDAY LULL NOTICED

Social Sets Quiet In Anticipation Of Gala Events In Future

There is a noticeable lull at Birmingham and Bloomfield social realms at the present time, but lulls are permissible between the Thanksgiving and the Christmas holidays.

Thanksgiving was the climax of a brilliant fall season, and there were dances, teas, dinners and receptions. After Thanksgiving all activity is centered towards plans and schemes to fill the Christmas holidays with happy times.

Present Day Club To Hold Meeting

Mrs. Ward Davis, of Davis street, will entertain the Present Day Club at her home, Dec. 12. There will be a musical program of Christmas carols and Mrs. Mahlon Stevens will read portions of "The Origin and History of Christmas Carol."

THREE SHOWS PLEASE GROUP

Thrills And Comedy On Village Players Program Saturday

Comedy and "mellow drama" combined to make the performance the Village Players at the Playhouse Saturday night all that it should have been and then some.

Of the three plays presented, "Dust of the Road," "The Dweller in the Dunes," and "Bunk," the second ranked needed no introduction.

"Practically every member of the cast had some heavy acting to do and the parts were accepted with facility. Honors were shared among Alice Crinkshank, Maude Mack, Wilbur Raymond, Wilfred Woodruff, Jack Saunders and Keith Sprague.

"Dust" is a farce that allows the audience in on the various tricks that go through the mind to make the play the thing it is really a light comedy.

"The Dweller in the Dunes" is a play that allows the audience in on the various tricks that go through the mind to make the play the thing it is really a light comedy.

This play, with "Dust of the Road" combined to make the young a thorough success.

Villagers Pay Brooks Tribute On Birthday

As perhaps a celebration of his twenty-fifth birthday last Thursday afternoon, E. G. Birmingham citizens offered Harry Brooks, Southfield aviator and chief test pilot for the Ford airplane company, a surprise party.

Those who, with Mr. Birmingham, entertained the party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Glancy, on Cranbrook road, Friday night, on the need of clinics to serve the mothers and babies of the isolated regions of the south.

It was a great trip for all of our people, Birmingham, and none of us experienced any discomfort, although we attained an altitude of 15,000 feet and a speed of 700 to 1100 miles per hour.

"The plane housed all of its passengers in an enclosed cabin, myself, was out in the cockpit and flew with Harry.

Bloomfield Open Hunt club will hold hunts on Wednesday and Saturday only, after Dec. 10, according to J. C. Wright, acting manager of the club.

Mrs. Jeannette Lyons and her daughter Dorothy, and her son, Wilson, formerly of Pontiac, have taken up their residence on Southfield avenue.
