19 GAMES REMAIN ON LEAGUE BILL

Interest Continues In Games With Six Days Remaining To Play

By STODDARD WHITE
With 19 games to be played in 19 days, league games are still being attended, perhaps by those who desire to see at least one game before the season closes, but probably by more regular spectators. The audience composed of students from other schools, teachers, and outsiders, runs to an average of 40 or 50 each day.

Coach E. L. VanWinkle has the plan completely worked through which the last of the league games will be played. Through climax

Editor's note: All news of the Baldwin High School on this page is gathered, written and edited by students of the school who have organized a news staff and who thoroughly cover the activities of the school.

The winning team will be decided and will be awarded the silver cup.

Games Feb. 3
Six games were played, all but the first, with no quarters, and seven-minute halves. Although the short time was not satisfactory, the games went smoothly and with absolute precision.

This, the first game the Browns lost, placed the Celtics at the head of both lists. The Celtics had been holding third place, but now made quite a jump for the championship. It was a good game, played without subs and a minimum of fouls.

In a practice game staged before the B. J. H. Berkley game Monday, the Birmingham Junior High Reserves defeated Adams Wolverines, 12-9.

The game was a good one, and the Wolverines, though decidedly the weaker team, put up a good fight, forcing the Reserves to list for what they got. A technical foul was called on Showers for failure to report on substitution.

Both teams had an equal share of the speculations as to who would win. About half the students favored the Wolverines, the other half the Tigers. But through better playing, with stronger defense and better team-work, the Tigers triumphed.

A little might be said here on F. Schwärze's prowess as a basketball star.

He is a fifth grader, and therefore not usually eligible to play on a Junior High team. But on the coach's ruling that upon agreement of both teams, an outsider could play, he was admitted.

He is somewhat smaller than the usual run of basketball players, but shows up creditably, and makes up in speed and eagerness what he lacks in size. He had played previously for the Colts, on which his brother Ralph plays.

Adams Celtics 8; Adams Redsox 6.

This was a good game, but the Redsox could hardly hope to win against the much stronger team, champs of the league. Both teams put up a good offense and defense, though that of the Celtics' was better.

Lineup

Scorer: E. Zabel (Adams).
Timer: D. Anderson (Adams).

Baldwin Yankees 18; Adams Yellowjackets 5.

The Yellowjackets were clearly outplayed by the other team, both in speed and teamwork. The Yankees were not up to par, but played well and stuck together, so that it resulted in a victory for them.

INDOOR TRACKSTERS PLAN RETURN MEET

Next Rochester Meet Expected To Show Ability Of Baldwin Performers.

The indoor track team of the Baldwin High School is now training under Coach A. L. Van Winkle for a return meet with Rochester the latter part of this month. They made a good showing in the first meet and probably will do better in the contest scheduled here, according to the coach.

Coach Van Winkle was especially pleased in the results of the relay race which is composed of Clark, Thomson, Cooney and Doherty won the race in exceptionally good time of 2:04. Coach Van Winkle had offered to give the event to Rochester because one of his men had run an extra lap, which was deducted from the next runner's distance. However the Rochester track coach would not accept the event because of the superiority of the visiting team.

DEBATERS MEET ANN ARBOR THERE

Government Control Of Coal Mines To Be Considered In Contest

Birmingham High School on the negative debate Ann Arbor High School on the affirmative in the latter city tonight.

The subject of this debate is: "Resolved, That the United States Government Should Own the Coal Mines."

The team that will represent Baldwin High School in this debate is being coached by Miss Vera Kaden, a member of the high school faculty. Carpenter Hewitt, Elizabeth Hascall and Mildred Patterson will represent Birmingham.

On this same date, 230 high schools of the state, all members of the Michigan High School Debating League, will meet in 115 debating rooms in which 600 high school pupils will participate. The subject of all these debates will be: "Resolved, That the United States Government Should Own the Coal Mines."

This debate tomorrow will be the last of the four preliminary debates sponsored by the Michigan high school debating league.

After the 230 high schools have participated in this final preliminary debate, the schools with the highest records will enter the elimination series of debates.

These will, by successive debates, eliminate all schools except two which will go to Ann Arbor for the final state championship debate in May.

The first debate of the Elimination Series will be held March 4. The dates of the remaining debates of this series will be announced as soon as the number of eligible schools can be determined.

The reports from the first three Preliminary Debates indicate a greater interest in debating than ever before as these three debates were attended by more than 75,000 persons.

The Michigan high school debating league was organized by the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan in 1917. It is the largest organization of its kind in the United States.

A. A. GIVES MOVIE
Tomorrow night, the Athletic association is presenting another movie which should draw a big crowd. The picture to be shown is Buster Keaton in "The General." This is the latest of Buster Keaton's pictures and is his best. The proceeds are to aid in defraying the expense of the new screen in the auditorium.

The Super-Six Principle also revealed in the ESSEX Super-SIX

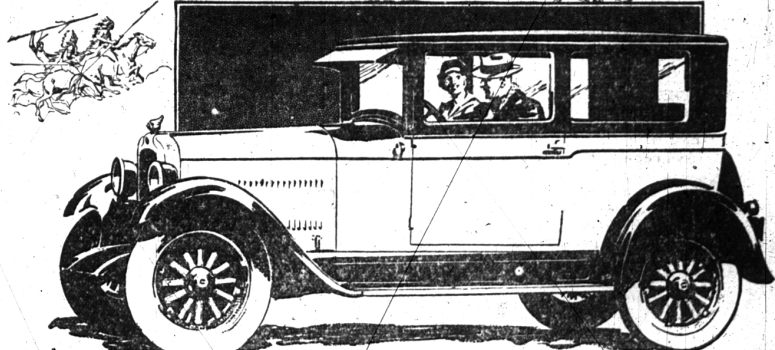

An outstanding characteristic of the Essex Super-six is the complete absence of labor with which it performs every requirement.

And, so, in all it does, whether spurring at top speed, or doing a comfortable fifty miles an hour all day long, you can realize its silky super-performance, only by the way you distance others.

Farther than ever beyond the reach of imitation

Every one knows that when announced a year ago, the Pontiac Six was an extraordinary automotive development. It represented the very best and finest that Oakland could create in a low-priced six, utilizing all the resources of General Motors.

The General Motors Research Staff pioneered Pontiac Six basic design. The great General Motors Proving Ground provided an unparalleled opportunity to perfect that design without regard to time or cost. Another great General Motors division—the Fisher Body Corporation—contributed bodies of unexcelled beauty, comfort and strength and General Motors combined purchases ine po ver assured minimum costs on quality materials.

Obviously, the Pontiac Six was then beyond duplication. For it was the product of three great interlocking organizations whose collective skill, facilities, and experience are nowhere else duplicated. Obviously, it is today still farther beyond the reach of imitation—because the Pontiac Six now carries this important additional attraction to buyers:

In a period of more than a year, it has served tens of thousands of owners in performance, reliability and economical operation, to a degree of satisfaction far beyond their fondest expectations!

Abraham Lincoln 1809-1865

UNFLINCHING, he kept the helm while those he trusted best failed him. Farseeing, he looked beyond the issues of the day; when others cried for ruthless conquest and subjection, he labored for the day that would see North and South united again. His goal achieved, he died upon the threshold of his glory. But the lessons he taught us guide us today, and Abraham Lincoln belongs to all mankind. He is one of the world's immortals.
