Church: "The cook books put out by the third division of the ladies' society of the Presbyterian Church are meeting with great favor everywhere. The number and variety of their recipes gained therein are being welcomed with joy by the housewives. The books can still be bought from Mrs. Elmer Heston, 129 1/2 north Woodward, or Mrs. Fred Crawford, 483 east Maple avenue."

C. Ross Thompson, Oakland County road commissioner: "Many municipalities are five years behind, the times in planning their improvements. A little thought of future needs at the present time will save millions of dollars in years to come."

Francis J. Newman, 415 Brown street: "I could not think of being without your excellent paper, The Eccentric, and wish you the best of success for the coming year."

Mrs. William G. Olsen, of 120 Willets street, Ford: "I compliment the Birmingham department of the National convention of fire chiefs held recently, as a department to be commended for its efficiency."

George H. Mitchell, First State Bank building: "First thing to the southern trip and going to make I suppose it would be an excellent idea to have about 200 cards printed, all of which would say: 'Having a fine time. Wish you were here.' This should give time."
