HELMIA MORROW TO WED. H. GROVES

Rev. F. E. Logge Will Perform Ceremony At Home Of Bride's Mother

Spring flowers will form the setting for the wedding of Miss Helma Morrow, the daughter of Mrs. E. M. Penfold, of Valley Grove, to H. T. Groves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Groves, of Greenwood avenue, at 10 p. m. Tuesday. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's mother, on Early street, with Rev. Floyd Emerson Logge, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Miss Morrow will be attended by Mr. Groves, Mrs. Logge, Mrs. Mohegan, and Miss Louise Mohegan as best man, Miss Della Mills will play the wedding march. The bride will be given in white crepe, made with pleated tulle. Miss Groves will wear rose colored crepe.

Supper will be served after the 40 guests. After a short recess, Mr. and Mrs. Groves will take up their residence on Wallace street.

Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the wedding are the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Groves, and their family, of Flint.

CAST ANNOUNCED FOR NEW VILLAGE PLAYS

"Monkeys Paw," A Tragedy, And "The Same Old Thing," A Play, Chosen

Mrs. Herbert Moore, of Harrison avenue, is directing "The Same Old Thing," and Mrs. L. H. Clemons, of Elm Park avenue, Pleasant Ridge, is directing the "Monkeys Paw," by W. Jacob, the two plays which will form the next program to be given by the Village Players, Jan. 25, at the new theatre.

"The Monkeys Paw" is described as a tragedy in one act and three scenes, dealing with English customs, with its setting in Sulham, a London suburb, and George M. Dwell, of east Maple avenue, as Mrs. White and Tom Murphy, as Mr. White, carry the leading roles.

Jack Burkman as Herbert White, Bob Sanners as Ed. Higgins, Morris, and W. J. Woodruff, Mr. Sampson, complete the cast of characters for the plays.

Mrs. Julian Case, Murray Hill street, and D. C. Murray, of Merrick street, as the actress and the boy, respectively, in "The Same Old Thing," a clever one-act opera with a farcical turn.

The remainder of the cast for this play is as follows: Melvin H. Bannister, of Harrison, as the husband; Mrs. W. H. Moore, of Madison avenue, as the maid, and Richard Fowler, of Southfield avenue, as the author.

James Olvera, of Villa road, and Mrs. Ward Crutchman, of Park street, have arranged to give parties for both of these plays, which will act as hostess for the evening.

League of Women To Attend Meeting

A number of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hill women are expected to attend the two-day conference of the League of Catholic Women of the Detroit area, to be held Jan. 19 and 20 at the Statler hotel, Detroit. Mrs. Edward Shook, chairman of the Hills, president of the organization, will act as general chairman for the conference.

Rev. Fr. A. M. Schwaltz, S. J., regent of the schools of Diocese and Medicine of St. Louis University, will be the featured speaker at the dinner at 6 p. m. of the first day, talking on "Hesed and Human Conduct." Men as well as women will be welcome at this meeting.

Proceeding the conference, the league will have a Bonafest night, Jan. 18, which the committee announces will serve as a gathering of the league family. The annual luncheon will be held on Jan. 20 at the Statler hotel.

Anyone wishing to make reservations for the dinner or luncheon, or wish to attend do so by Jan. 15, or Jan. 12, those in charge say.

Exchanges Name Two Team Captains

As a means of stimulating attendance at the Birmingham Exchange club meetings here, Dr. F. H. Tucker, president, appointed Ralph Wilson as captain of the 21 competing teams for the next 21 weeks. The men were captains of 20 similar teams a year ago, Wilson's team winning. As near as possible, the same personnel of each team will be used this time, the losing team to banquet the winner at a dinner.

A speaker was scheduled for the meeting Tuesday, the program being given over to a general discussion of club business. The club, which Robert H. Allen has presided, capable speaker for next Tuesday, 52 issues of The Eccentric, $1.50

Bloomfield Man Writes Advertising Book

An advertising book whose material has been gleaned from practical experience in advertising, is being prepared by Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus, of Bloomfield. It will be issued late this year.

The book, written in a simple, unobtrusive form, with no suggestion of being a textbook, or a collection of cliché details of his advertising connections, which have flourished for more than a score of years.

Mr. MacManus' long advertising association with such leaders as J. H. Reynolds, Collyer, Dugan, Brothers and Chrysler has made him known to thousands of motorists.

He has also been heard of by the general public, as an intimate and trusted adviser of John and Horace Dodge when they were alive, and the inventor of Cadillac.

For years he worked in the relation with Charles D. Hart, of Hart, McGee, Co., president of Hammill, and so works today with Hubbs Young and his associates of the West Virginia, to spend the rest of the winter. The guests numbered eight.
