FOUR WOMEN IN GOLF FINALS

Field Narrows State Meet At Bloomfield Hills Club

Four women are at play today on the Bloomfield Hills Golf course in the finals of the Women's State Golf Tournament. Mrs. Olin Finney meets Mrs. P. S. Stubbins and Mrs. W. C. Givern meets Mrs. Stewart Ham by today on the course, the winners to play off for state championship tomorrow.

Mrs. Harley Higley, defending champion, fell to Mrs. Finney in the surprise match of yesterday's play, but took the match in her match with Mrs. J. E. Gilmore. They were two of the three women who played the whole course coming in with 88 and 89 respectively.

Mrs. Hanley Wins
Mrs. McGivern beat Mrs. W. J. Chesborough three and two and Mrs. Hanley beat Mrs. Finney four and one. Mrs. R. C. Jamison, six and four, Mrs. Hanley coming through with an 87 for the whole course. Mrs. Finney, a former champion, is a member of the Oakland Hills Golf club. In her match on Tuesday, she defeated Miss Madge Miller an Oakland Hills club member. Mrs. Stubbins is also from Oakland Hills, her opponent in yesterday's match. Mrs. Gilmore being from the Detroit Golf club. Mrs. McGivern and her opponent, Mrs. Chesborough, are both from the Detroit Golf club. Mrs. Chesborough was medalist in the qualifying round. Mrs. Hanley is a member of the Oakland Hills Golf club. Mrs. Jamison was the Bloomfield Hills club hope in the match.

Action Expected
The matches tomorrow are expected to be fast and furious. Mrs. Finney looks as if she is really staging a comeback for the championship, and her match with Mrs. Stubbins promises to bring out some excellent golf.

The McGivern-Hanley match also promises thrills. Golf experts have been figuring Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. Higley as finalists prior to yesterday. Today they are again manna close-mouthed.
