M'ALPINE STARR INCORPORATED

Former Village Manager is Member of New Engineering Company To Start Here

Incorporation of the firm of McAlpine & Starr was announced yesterday by W. S. McAlpine. The new company will succeed the old W. S. McAlpine Engineering company and will have offices in the building at 308 South Woodward avenue. The new firm is incorporated for $10,000.

Officers of the organization are: W. S. McAlpine, president; Harry S. Starr, treasurer; L. Leitch Smith, secretary. Gerald H. Curtis was named as a member.

The new firm will do general civil engineering and surveying work. Mr. McAlpine has been in Birmingham for 10 years and specializes in surveying and map making. Mr. Starr has been here six years ago, is a registered civil engineer and former village manager. He is, at present, village engineer.

The W. S. McAlpine Map Company will be unaffected by the incorporation it was said yesterday.

WE INVITE your use of our Delivery Service

Shopping for food in the summer time is not the pleasantest thing in the daily habits of the housewife. For it means getting things in order at the house first, then dressing for street wear, and then finally making your way up town for the task of purchasing foods that satisfy summer appetites.

But there is no reason why you NEED make a daily trip to town for these purchases. We deliver four times a day. Phone 1035 and we will deliver your order very promptly and to your highest satisfaction.

If you have run out of ideas about what to eat—ask us to suggest something—be it vegetables or meat. We carry a complete line of both. Simply phone 1035 and your wants will receive our courteous attention.

Our prices and our quality are two features of this store which we guard jealously. Each week more Birmingham housewives are learning about our high quality that accompanies our low prices. Each week more Birmingham housewives are becoming REGULAR patrons. We invite your use of our delivery service to prove these words.
