

'BE CAREFUL,' CHIEF WARNS

July Fourth Celebrators Urged To Use Caution; Plans Made

This warning is issued to Fourth of July celebrators today by Fire Chief William Olsen and village officials as the date of the celebration by individuals nears. Although Birmingham has been particularly fortunate in avoiding accidents and fires in any great number on that day in former years, there is always a slinger that warrants the greatest precaution, Chief Olsen said. Firemen will be in constant vigilance during the day and night of the Fourth and every precaution is to be taken by police and firemen to give the village a safe and sane Fourth.

His Treat. A sportsman who owned a small estate in Hampshire, invited a guest for the week-end. On Sunday the host decided to go to church, and persuaded his friend to accompany him. When the guest was about to drop half a penny into it, when his companion seized his arm. "Put that in your pocket, Bill," he said, in an earnest whisper; "you're having this with me."

Bloomfield Hills Horticultural Society Exhibit Held At Baldwin High

The gorgeous exhibition of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural Society in the Baldwin High School Saturday provided another point of interest for the hundreds who gathered for the district fair given by the League of St. James Women. Penies in almost every shade, color and aroma in the staid halls, and wild flowers and fruits and irises in profusion drew the eyes of the shoppers at the fair.

Joseph Dunlop was general chairman of the show, assisted by Arthur Clayton and Thomas Hind. The officers of the organization are Arvon Dennis, president; Geo. Binning, vice president; and Ralph Marble, secretary.

- J. Bauman, W. Nelson Whittemore and A. J. Shanley, the judges for the show, made the following awards:
- Class one—perennial collection—W. T. Balmour, first.
- Class two—perennials—Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves, first; Mrs. C. W. Matheson, second.
- Class three—peony collection—R. E. Collins, first.
- Class four—collection of penies—Mrs. W. D. Hubbard, first; Mrs. J. A. Braund, second; and Col. Edwin S. George, third.
- Class five—rose of white pomine—Gordon Menzies, first; Mrs. James Craig, second; and J. Bauman & Son, third.
- Class six—rose of pink pomine—A. J. Philip, first; J. Bauman & Son, second; and Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves, third.
- Class seven—rose red pomine—W. D. Hubbard, first; J. Bauman & Son, second; and Gordon Menzies, third.
- Class eight—three varieties—Mrs. W. C. Matheson, first; W. D. Hubbard, second; and W. D. Hubbard, third.

special company of American performers was organized for London, the company opening at the Strand Theatre there on Dec. 22. A month later they moved to the larger Adelphi. The play is still there.

The special company appearing in Detroit had its first performance on April 14 in Toledo, moving into Detroit on Sunday, April 17. Other companies are in progress of organization. The Detroit company will move on to Chicago, where "Broadway" has not yet been seen, in a few weeks. It has already broken all dramatic records in Detroit, with the exception of "Abie's Irish Rose" and no attempt will be made to touch "Abie's" record going to the prior Chicago booking.

GARRICK

Entering upon its twelfth week at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, Sunday, Jed Harris' presentation of "Broadway" continues its thrill and amuse capacity, aptly commensurate with its excellently staged story that peeps behind the scenes of New York cabarets.

On Tuesday, "Broadway," which was written and staged by Philip Dunlop and George Abbott celebrated its first year's birthday. It was on July 5, the holiday of last year, that the first performance of "Broadway" was given in Atlantic City where it remained for a week. Intended merely as a summer try-out, which usually means a financial loss to the producer, "Broadway" attracted every its sponsors by attracting such crowds to the theatre in the seaside resort that the play actually showed a profit on its first week. Naturally, with its multitudinous details, the performance was too ragged for its producer and authors and many changes and some re-writing was done. Further try-outs in nearby towns and on Sept. 16 the finished product was first shown at the Broadway Theatre, New York, where the original company is still playing to large houses. A

Daily, more car owners by the score are realizing this--

The present level of tire prices makes it possible to enjoy General's quality at a cost lower than they paid last year for tires of ordinary value.

As tire prices have come down, the percentage of extra cost for Generals has meant less and less in dollars and cents, until now, the difference in the more popular sizes is only a dollar or so.

This is the Thrifty Tire Buyers' Market

Top quality has always been the first essential to tire economy. With General's quality at its topmost peak and prices low to the other extreme, now, more than ever, you can afford the pleasure of riding on Generals.

You can save money and at the same time enjoy all the advantages of General's personal comfort, car protection and gasoline saving, and remember that on top of all these special features, it's the second 10,000 miles that makes the big hit.
