

In All the World---

There is no newspaper that has such direct appeal to Birmingham-born or Birmingham-raised readers as

The Birmingham Eccentric

"Your Home-Town Newspaper"

The reason for this is simple: The Eccentric records the happenings, social, governmental, and business, that occurs nearest to your family hearth.

In other words, The Eccentric publishes news that you have a part in the making of—for The Eccentric's columns are filled with stories that tell about your "home-town."

That's why The Eccentric appeals so strongly to its growing list of subscribers. That's why each issue of this newspaper is eagerly awaited by the people of this community.

We, who publish The Eccentric, are, indeed, pleased to serve you in a journalistic way; we are proud to know, too, that we have merited and retained your confidence.
