

SPECIAL TAXATION OBJECTIONS ARE UP

Meeting of Owners With Village Commissioners Ordered For March 21.

Suggestions and objections on two special assessment rolls concerning Corryell Park subdivision will be heard Monday evening, Mar. 21, in the village office.

The first one is for a six-inch watermain on Arlington road and Shirley drive from Lincoln to Maple avenues. The second one is for the construction of a storm sewer system in the subdivision. It would vary in size from 18 to 24 inches, and would be laid in the same territory as the watermain.

The resolution for the preparation of the special rolls by the village assessor was made at the committee meeting Jan. 24.

CHARGES PLACED AGAINST DRIVER

(Continued from Page 1) of all shills an hour and the charges were preferred after De Beau had made a statement to Assistant Prosecutor Norman C. Orr.

William Francis a passenger in the DeBeau car also was questioned as to the manner in which the machine was being driven. It is said the stories told by him and DeBeau do not coincide.

DeBeau is a foreman for the Utley Construction company of Pontiac. He said he was returning to his home at 2305 Grand River avenue, Detroit, after work. He declared he had made but one stop after leaving the job and that was at a garage. Police say they detected the odor of liquor on his breath, however.

DeBeau was acquitted of a reckless driving charge in 1926 in Pontiac after arrest following an automobile accident.

PEOPLE BIRMINGHAM SAY'S JOHN BIRMINGHAM SAYS 'PEOPLE HAVE ONE GREAT DUTY - TO VOTE'

"Yes, the climate," it was answered.

Mr. Birmingham showed his contempt with a look. It was almost the kind of look that Penches must have given the old man when he bought her the toy automobile, or the kind of look that passed between the mayor of a city near here and a policeman who tried to arrest him for parking his machine in the wrong place.

"Son," said Mr. Birmingham, "there are so many laws. There are so many laws in the books that were they all enforced every man, woman and child in this country would be in jail."

"The Sunday movie affair would be merely another law. It would be merely another useless shackles on other women had offered her the ankle of one who enjoys some

They may be surprised to find that the ordinance has passed, and vote, but say if they don't, every man, woman, child and dog, should cast a ballot Monday."
