Mitchell Finds Florida Remains Beautiful Despite Its Hurricane

By GEORGE H. MITCHELL. To resume after three happy weeks in Daytona Beach. We set sail, or rather sat over a big balloon tires in a comfortable bus filled with people, to ride ash at Miami.

Over the Dixie The ride from Daytona Beach is easily accomplished over the Dixie Highway all the way down because we had rest stops and stores for dinner and at night a hotel. Were I a young man I would become an autist and do the trip from home with my car because one here with an auto has the southern world more at his command.

In 31 Villages From Jacksonville to Miami you pass through 31 villages and cities, all but thirty are much like our northern cities.

SIX WHO AWAIT EXECUTION

Six men, sentenced to be electrocuted, occupy numbered rows in the Jefferson county jail at Laksville, Ky., waiting court-drawn new trials, or a march to execution. All six have been convicted in the last six months.
