VOYAGERS BACK TO BIRMINGHAM

Early Spring Weather Causes Return of Many From South

The early spring is having its effect on absent Birminghamians. Many of those who traveled to the warmer climes for the winter months have returned earlier than they had planned, to enjoy what promises to be a beautiful spring in the north as well as a comfortably early one.

Mrs. A. J. Hays and her two children, Joan and Jerry, have returned to their home on Buckingham road. They had been in Clearwater, Fla., for several months.

The Russell Baldwins have returned from Virginia to their home at Wing Lake. Their daughter, Miss Leah, is home from Leggett School, Detroit, for her spring vacation.

Mrs. James Craig and her daughter, Miss Jean Craig, are back in their lovely Oak Knob home after several weeks in the south. They spent some time in Florida and Georgia, and on their return trip stopped off in New York for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cooper, who are residing on the Mediterranean, are expected home soon and will open their home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wendolph of Brown street will arrive within the next day or so. They have been gone for several months, spending part of their time in California and part in Florida.

Thomas Cobb, of north Woodward avenue, will be back very soon after spending the winter at several resorts.

Mrs. E. Phillips Standart has reopened her home on Long Lake road after spending the winter at the Chateau Frontenac, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Huston, of north Woodward avenue, are expected home Monday, after spending some time in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Averill and their three children are returning to their home on Poppleton avenue tomorrow. Ernest Fetty, of Lakeview avenue, will also be back tomorrow.

Birmingham Women Welcomed In Hawaii

HONOLULU.—(Special Correspondent to The Eccentric.)—When the S.S. City of Los Angeles arrived off Waikiki this morning it was greeted by the booming of big guns. Fort De Russay, one of the six forts on the island of Oahu, was engaged in firing practice and the ordinarily the passengers of the big white liner had a thrill. As the ship entered the harbor, navy boys were diving for zodiacs and the Hawaiian band on the dock played sweet island melodies. The quaint old Hawaiian custom of greeting visitors with leis (wreaths) of fragrant flowers was accorded the travelers as they came ashore.

Among those arriving on the S.S. City of Los Angeles were Mrs. M. Basset and Miss Ethel Basset, of Birmingham, Michigan.

Meeting Last Tuesday. The last Tuesday in each month has been devoted to the meetings of the American League of the American Legion. The last meeting was held Tuesday.
