

PLANNING TO VACATE HOUSE FOR CARS HERE

Unofficial Information Declares Shops Will Remove To Pontiac
HIGH VALUES CAUSE

Plans are being made by the removal of the car barns from their site on north Woodward avenue in Birmingham to a new site in Pontiac, according to unofficial information received.
The D. U. R. car barns, which remain silent on the question however.

Raising property values and the inadequacy of the Birmingham quarters are given as the reason for the removal. No action can be taken on the matter however, until court procedure, it is said.

The barns, which occupy approximately five acres of land and which have been in existence since the building was erected more than 30 years ago, will be removed and the property sold, it is said.

The car company, even five years ago, was not a car company, it is declared that officials have not yet decided on the particular location of the new barns, but remain silent on the question
however.

THINGS SHOW GREAT INTEREST IN SCHOOL EXHIBIT

Many Schools Display Work Completed During Two Semesters
SEEK UNDERSTANDING

Wholehearted interest on the part of parents of school children in Birmingham is reported this week during the annual school exhibits in the public school buildings.

Both the Baldwin High School and the Park High School are entertaining today. The latter, at the corner of 12th and Jefferson, is the scene of a large gathering of students and visitors.

A visitor attending the annual Baldwin exhibits tomorrow evening will find himself surrounded by a multitude of surprising demonstrations, according to reports from the high school. Demonstrations of the various kinds of work to which the students have been devoting their time during the past semester will be given in every department. The purpose of this annual affair is to enable the parents to see the work of their children, according to Principal Melvin C. Hart.

All teachers will be in their respective class rooms, from 7:30 until 8:15 p. m. and special interests in vocational subjects will be shown at this time. Among the subjects having demonstrations are typing, sewing, cooking, art, science, manual training, scouting and music; the latter being given by the Park High School.

At 9:15 the physical training building, under the direction of Miss Helen Melville and A. J.
Van Winkle, will begin in the auditorium.

Boy Scouts will be on duty during the evening to give information.

Homage Paid To Oldest Member As Methodists Hold Centennial

Homage will be paid again to Mrs. Joseph Allen, the oldest member of the First Methodist Church, when members rally at their homecoming at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the church. This will be one of the many events marking the celebration of the church's centennial celebration. Throughout the entire year, the church has been celebrating its centennial.
Mrs. Allen, who is now 84 years old, has been a member of the church for 74 years.

Mrs. J. Bert Peabody, of East Maple avenue, is in charge of the homecoming, to which all former and present members of the church, as well as those who have been members of other churches, are invited. Refreshments are to be served, and the day is expected to be a most successful one.

The church's centennial celebration is being celebrated in a most imposing manner. The church has been celebrating its centennial for the entire year.

BOARD INAUGURATION FORMALITIES Soon Lost In Maze Of Business

The somewhat formal air of the village offices when the four elected members took their oaths last Monday night was soon disturbed by the intensive transactions which occupied their attention as soon as the formalities had been disposed of.

The commissioners, elected at the special election May 10, to increase the commission from three to seven members are: W. W.
Hart, Laurence H. Hubert, Mr.
Hopes-Hall and Scott H. Hays.
The first two named are to serve for one year. The others will serve one year.

Flowers, sent to the commissioners by an anonymous donor, were decorated the table. Upon returning the room the new commissioners bowed themselves getting acquainted.

In three instances there were introductions.

Mr. Hays, the first member who has ever served on a village commission here, seemed quite at ease as he took part in the business which was carried on.
