Happy Weeks are Born on MAYTAG Mondays

MANY a happy week owes its start to the Maytag washer when a big washing is done in an hour. When even collars, cuffs and neckbands are washed without hand-rubbing. When there is no changing of water because of the heat-retaining qualities of the cast-aluminum tub. When there is no cleaning up after the washing because the Maytag tub cleans itself in 30 seconds. Try the Maytag without obligation or expense—if it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it.

DR. C. G. DARLING ON ST. JOE STAFF
Son of Ann Arbor Surgeon Will Assume Duties In July

HOSPITAL'S FIRST BABY IS BIRMINGHAM BOY
The first baby born at St. Joseph's new Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, was a Birmingham baby, John Flatman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flatman, 516 Purdy street. He arrived at 11:15 a. m. May 10 and weighed eight pounds fifteen ounces. For several days he had the lovely pink and white nursery all to himself.

graduate of the University of Michigan School of Medicine, class of '25. He has served his internship in Detroit and at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor. "We will be very glad to have Dr. Darling on our staff," Father Bourke said. "He has made splendid progress during his internship and he comes to highly recommended. He is a worthy follower in the footsteps of his father, one of the best surgeons in the Middle West."

The campaign for money for the hospital was carried on in June, 1925. The quota of $200,000, to be raised in eight days, was oversubscribed by $35,000, and work was begun on the building more than a year ago. A site for the hospital was donated by Fred W. Warner, former general manager of the Oakland Motor Car company, but it was sold, with his consent, and the proceeds put into the present site, which contains eight acres.

A great sweep of green lawn will lead up to the Woodward avenue entrance to the hospital, and Sister Carmella is planning flower gardens to set off the stately building to even better advantage.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Lynch, 215 Frank street, will furnish $200 toward St. Joseph's Hospital. It is announced by those in charge.
