

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

By CLARICE TAPSON

FLORIDA CALLS VILLAGE FOLK

Trek To Warmer Climes Begins As Winter Arrives Here

The first real wintry weather, last Saturday, with its accompaniment of big fluffy snowflakes, was the last touch needed to start the great southern exodus. Indian Summer won't last all winter, Saturday informed Michigan. And so Florida's call, ignored so far this fall, was heard and acted upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Todd, of west Maple road, have gone to St. Petersburg. The George D. Todd's, of west Maple road, will spend the winter in Pelmetto, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lawrence, of Southfield road, have left for Brookville, to stay until after the cold weather.

Mrs. Fanny Johnson, of Bloomfield Manor, is leaving for California. She expects to shake her home there in the future. Mrs. William C. Harris, of Quanton road, has left for California to

COMMUNITY HOUSE CALENDAR

Thursday, Nov. 10.—Business Girls' luncheon, 12 noon; Miss Kingsland's dancing class, 4:15 until 6 p. m.

Friday, Nov. 11.—Miss Smith's dancing classes, 10 a. m. until 12:1 until 7:30 p. m.; Saturday, Nov. 12.—Boys' club room 10 a. m. to 12:1; 1:30 p. m. to 5:30; 7:30-9:30 p. m.

Sunday, Nov. 13.—Church School, 11-12 a. m.

Monday, Nov. 14.—Miss Smith's dancing classes, 1-7 p. m.; Night classes, 8 p. m. m.; Scouts, 7 p. m.

Tuesday, Nov. 15.—Class in world politics, 10 a. m.; Literary club, 2 p. m.; Night Class, 8 p. m.

Wednesday, Nov. 16.—American Legion, 7 p. m.; Girl Reserves, 4 p. m.

PRESIDENTS' DAY IS CELEBRATED

Twentieth Century Club Appoints Representatives For Schumann—Heink Luncheon

A number of Bloomfield Hills women attended the President's Day celebration of the Twentieth Century club of Detroit last Thursday at the clubhouse, when Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, of Wyoming, the first woman governor in the United States, was guest of honor. Gorgeous yellow and pink dahlias from the gardens of Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. Albert Stahelin, both of the Hills, graced the small tables at which the guests were seated. Mrs. Sherman L. Dewey, of Hickory Grove road, sang a group of songs before Governor Ross's talk.

Two Bloomfield Hills women are on the committee appointed by Mrs. Robert L. Messinger, of Grosse Pointe, to arrange for subscription luncheon at the Hotel Statler, Detroit, Friday, Nov. 18, to honor Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, who is making her farewell appearance in Detroit this evening.

Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, of "Linda Vista," and Mrs. Edwin E. George, of Long Lake road, will represent the Hills on the committee, which also includes Mrs. H. Nichols, Jessie Bunelle, Mrs. J. S. Newberry, Mrs. Lett Butzel, Mrs. Ossip Gabrielovitch, Mrs. Morse Eubank, Mrs. Henry Ford, Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy, Mrs. Oscar Webber, Mrs. C. B. Warren, Mrs. William H. Morphy, Mrs. J. B. Moran and Mrs. Samuel Mumford.

Dance Chairman

Mrs. Otis L. Helfrich is treasurer of the Poor Relief Assembly, an organization of advertising men and their wives in Birmingham, which will hold its first dance Friday evening at the Players' Theatre, at Chestnut and 21st streets.

AUXILIARY PLAN VETERANS' GIFT

Legion Women To Send Annual Boxes To Battle Creek Hospital

Donations are being received today by the Women's Auxiliary of Charles Edwards Post, No. 11, American Legion, for the annual Thanksgiving gift to the Veterans' Hospital at Battle Creek. Gifts of canned fruit and jelly or other preserves are always welcome at the hospital, members of the auxiliary say.

Contributions will be accepted at McFelix's Candy store, 112 west Maple avenue, the headquarters of collection, until Saturday, Nov. 11. If anyone has contributions and is unable to get down to the headquarters with them, she is asked to call Mrs. Elmer E. Cook, of Greenwood avenue, and the gift will be called for.

Mrs. R. M. of Pierce street, and Mrs. Harold Carson, of west Maple avenue, are in charge of the collection and delivery.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. S. Rolla Hurston, of North street, are receiving congratulations today on the birth of a daughter Patricia Ann, Oct. 30.

Mrs. William E. Tracy, of Lone Pine road, entertained the Monday club at luncheon Monday at the Lone Pine Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fouse, (Lillian Whay), are the guests of Mrs. Fouse's parents, the William J. Whays, of Bloomfield Hills Village. They are planning a trip to the Orient in the near future, expecting to remain for a year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Linton and family of Lone Pine road have returned from a motor trip to Lafayette and Indianapolis. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Linton's mother, Mrs. B. F. Linton, of Lafayette and Saturday they attended the Purdue-Northwestern football game.

Mrs. Laverne Robinson, of Mr. Morris, will be the week-end guest of Mrs. Neil Black, of Ridgeland avenue.

Mrs. Robert William Essig, Jr., of Birmingham road will entertain her bridge club Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar and their two children, of Brown street, motored to Chicago for the Chicago-Michigan football game Saturday. They were the guests over the week-end of Mrs. Farrar's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Farrar, of Chicago. They returned Monday.

Mrs. Cyrenius Adelbert Newcomb, Jr., entertained at luncheon yesterday at "Quoniam," her Hill home, honoring Miss Elizabeth Ansell and Miss Anne Bright, two Detroit debutantes of this season.

In honor of Mrs. William Brownage who will be soon to make her future home in California, Mrs. Verne Harnett will entertain with a luncheon Thursday at her home on Brookside drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cokerline of Pierce street entertained the following guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. William Cokerline of Highland Park.

Mrs. Robert William Essig, Sr., and Mrs. Robert William Essig, Jr., will unite in entertaining at a bridge luncheon next Wednesday at their home on Buckingham road.

Henry Roth, of Henrietta street, left Sunday for Woodstock, Ont., to spend a short vacation with his parents.

A luncheon of beautiful appointments was given by Miss Sarah E. Sly, of west Maple road, for a large number of her friends yesterday at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. The afternoon was spent at bridge.

Several Birmingham women attended the card party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Olga Decker at her home in Royal Oak. After the playing a delicious luncheon was served to the guests, Mrs. L. Virginia Hewitt, of Oakland avenue, Mrs. G. E. Hicks, of Oakland avenue, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Irene Seaman, Miss Averil Morrison and Miss Ida Homes, of Oakland avenue.

Mrs. James Parry, of Oakland avenue, was hostess at a tea yesterday to members of the fanciful booth for the Methodist bazaar. The women spent the afternoon sewing. Tea was served.

More Society News on next page and on page two, part two.

MRS. J. D. WARRICK
Trained 2 years Grace Hospital
NURSING
References
Phone 1509

The Harper Method Shop
Specializing In Harper Method Facial Massages

Quarton Building Telephone 1015

Marcelling and Finger Waving

For Our Many Friends and Patrons in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills Village

HAMMELEFS

Have opened a

CHOCOLATE SHOPPE

Tuesday, November 1st

The Fox and Hounds Inn Building Bloomfield Hills Village

You Are Cordially Invited To Visit Our New Store

Offering Fountain Service Drug Accessories Ice Cream Box Candles Cigars and Tobaccos

Lone Pine Inn
WOODWARD HIGHWAY AND LONE PINE ROAD

Thanksgiving Dinner

promises to be an old-fashioned Thanksgiving Dinner at "The Lone Pine Inn." If you would care to have a Turkey or Fowl and carve it yourself, ask Mrs. DEVERE

We are preparing to take orders for Cakes, Pies, Rolls, Fruit Cakes, Mince Meat, Salads, Sandwiches, Entrees, Desserts, French Dressing, Mayonnaise, Jellies and Jams.

In addition to our catering to Bridge Parties, Luncheons, Dinners, we are prepared to cater outside of the Inn.

Christ Church
CRANBROOK
REV. S. S. MARQUIS, Rector

SUNDAY SERVICE:
Morning Service, Sermon, 11 A. M.
Sunday School at the Same Hour

SERVICE HELD IN GUILD HALL OF PARISH HOUSE CORNER LONE PINE AND CRANBROOK ROADS

Tell Your Merchant You Saw His Advertisement in THE ECENTRIC

Soft Water Shampooing

SPECIAL
Monday, Wednesday and Friday

HOT OIL SHAMPOO AND WAVE $2.00

SPECIALIZING IN MANICURE WORK AND FINGER WAVING

Powder Puff Beauty Shop
124 S. Woodward Phone 670

POSTPONE DATE OF P. T. A. MEET

The meeting of the Adams Parent-Teacher association scheduled for Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, has been postponed until Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, it is announced today. William Avery Barras, educational director of reading at the Detroit Public Library, who was scheduled to speak at the original date, will speak next Wednesday. The exhibition of books for children, in connection with National Book Week, will also be on view Tuesday night.

Mr. L. M. Yoder of New York City, a former classmate of R. D. Logee, was guest Wednesday at the Logee home on Ridgeland avenue.

Mrs. George Singers of Park street will be hostess next Thursday at a bridge-luncheon to the members of the San Souci club.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad 52 Issues of The Eccentric, $1.50

SCHOOL PARTY PLANS READY

Plans are nearing completion today for the first dance to be given at Cranbrook School. The party will take place Friday evening, Nov. 18, from 9 until 12 in the auditorium of the school and will be for the third form students only.

These students will invite their friends, and it is hoped by officials of the school, that the party will foster friendships between students at the school and the boys and girls of the vicinity. Both up-to-date and old-time dances will be on the program, which is in the hands of Mrs. William O. Steever.

VILLAGE FOLK FLY TO GRID GAME

Thrills Experienced in Airplane Ride To Chicago, Michigan Tit

The Michigan-Chicago football game Saturday at Chicago held the party of Birmingham and Pontiac residents who flew over to the west Maple avenue, Harry Brook of Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Pauler Seeley, of Pontiac, left Saturday morning, flying first Grand Rapids, where they picked up Mr. and Mrs. Ludovick Jacobs. Thence they went on to Chicago. They returned Sunday morning, undecided as to which was the more thrilling, the game or the trip.

ARMISTICE DAY ATMOSPHERE TO PERVADE BRIDGE

An Armistice Day atmosphere will pervade the Oakland Hills this afternoon, when the Rotary Apts will entertain at a large bridge breakfast, beginning at noon. The decorations are to be carried out in red, white and blue, at the 75 tables which are expected.

A number of merchants have donated their wares to the club for this occasion. Bell Florists are supplying the flowers; the Miner Grocery company, Shain drug store and Hammelefs are giving the candies and the Laffelle Book Shop has provided several of the prizes, which are to be given at each table.

Tickets for the bridge breakfast, which is being given for the benefit of Rotarian extension work, are to be had from Mrs. Elmer Huston, of north Woodward avenue.

GIRLS TO GO ON TREASURE HUNT

A treasure hunt is being planned for the members of the Birmingham chapter of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls Saturday night.

The hunt will begin at 7:30 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. George Thompson, of Rochester, at the annual meeting of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs Tuesday at Rochester. An extensive program, including a lecture on a "Trip Through the Underworld" by Dr. Harry A. Waite, representing the Narcotic Educational Association Inc., of Michigan, as well as an exhibition of opium pipes, lamps, needles and other equipment, was given during the morning and afternoon at the Rochester community house.

Luncheon was served at noon at the Rochester Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Marlotte is second vice-president of the county federation.

BUSINESS CLUB TO VOTE TODAY

A special election to choose a new secretary and corresponding secretary will be held at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's clubs this noon at the Community House.

The office of corresponding secretary is a new one, resulting from the former Business Girls' club's becoming affiliated with the Business and Professional Women's clubs of the country. A new secretary will be elected to fill the place left vacant by the resignation of Mildred Spicer, former secretary. Mrs. McKinley has been acting as secretary pro tem for some time. Four members of the club attended the dinner given last week by the Detroit Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, when Mrs. Ethyl B. Van Eeter, president of the state federation, was the speaker. Alta Symons, Myrtle Kraft, Eloise Carnahan, and Anna Zimmester represented the Birmingham club at the meeting.

BANQUET A FEATURE OF CLUB INITIATION

A banquet, consisting of a turkey dinner, is being planned for next Thursday night in connection with initiation, by Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F. & A. M. The meeting will open at 9 p. m. one candidate receiving his degree, the third, before the banquet, and one after it. A program is being planned for the evening, with an out-of-town speaker.

The regular meeting of the James Haslberger chapter of the Order of Daughters of the East, Tuesday, will be taken up with ritual rehearsal for the initiatory degree, in preparation for the next initiation.

MRS. J. H. MARLOTTE ADDRESSES WOMEN

Mrs. J. H. Marlotte of Pierce street, gave the response to the welcome address of Mrs. George Thompson, of Rochester, at the annual meeting of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs Tuesday at Rochester. An extensive program, including a lecture on a "Trip Through the Underworld" by Dr. Harry A. Waite, representing the Narcotic Educational Association Inc., of Michigan, as well as an exhibition of opium pipes, lamps, needles and other equipment, was given during the morning and afternoon at the Rochester community house.

Luncheon was served at noon at the Rochester Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Marlotte is second vice-president of the county federation.

Bloomfield Hills Village Dress Shop

Joins in the spirit of PROSPERITY WEEK "Values and Savings" offering

1/4 REDUCTION ON ENTIRE STOCK OF Daytime Frocks

Ranging in price from $25 to $85 and up including

SPORT MODELS AFTERNOON DRESSES CHILDREN'S WEAR

SALE STARTS SATURDAY For the convenience of Birmingham teachers and business women

The A. M. Turner Co.
WOODWARD AVENUE—FOX AND HOUNDS INN BUILDING

SAFETY SUPERVISOR IS PIERCE P. T. A. SPEAKER

Miss Harriett Beard, supervisor of public education in the Detroit public schools, will speak on "Safety" at the next meeting of the Pierce School Parent-Teacher association, to be held at 3:30 p. m. Monday in the school.

Miss Beard, who has been with the department of education for several years, has become authority on safety problems in the schools. She has published a book on the subject.

A visiting team will be held at Pierce School next Thursday afternoon, in connection with Prosperity Week. Parents and friends of the students will be welcomed at a social hour and tea at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Stewart, of east Maple road, entertained 30 out-of-town guests at their home Sunday.

St. James' Church

The Reverend WARNER L. FORTH Rector

RT. REV. HERMAN PAGE, P. D. Confirmation

Services
8:00—Holy Eucharist
9:45—Church School
11:00—Confirmation by Bishop Herman Page.

GOODNESS!

Mary Lee CANDIES FRESH EVERY WEEK

Wilson Drug Co.
104 S. Woodward Birmingham Phone 35

CHATEAU
Tea Room
OLD FASHIONED FOOD
Birmingham

BLOOMFIELD HILLS ANTIQUE SHOP
CHINTZ EARLY AMERICAN FURNITURE GIFTS
172 South Woodward Avenue Birmingham, Michigan