LADIES' AID PLAN BAZAAR

Most Elaborate Affair In Years Is Foreseen

Plans are nearing completion today for the annual bazaar, to be given by the Ladies Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Dec. 2, at the church. Present indications are that this will be one of the most elaborate affairs of its kind ever given by the organization.

The bazaar will open at noon and last throughout the day, in the junior room of the church. A chicken supper will be served at 6 p. m., tickets for which will be on sale within a few days. Mrs. Fattie Evans and Mrs. L. L. Osborne, of Park street, are in charge of arrangements for the supper.

Numerous booths will be in evidence at the bazaar, the largest of which promises to be the fancy booth, of which Mrs. Robert H. Lynd, of Ferrate avenue, will be in charge, assisted by Mrs. L. J. Slasser, of Pierce street. Crocheted rags, downy comforters, and embroidered shirts, pillow cases, and dresser scarves, handkerchiefs, bags, and everything in the line of fanciful novelties will be for sale at this booth.

A doll booth will also be a feature of the bazaar. Dolls in every manner of dress, baby dolls and grown-up dolls, will all be on sale. Mrs. Harvey Ross, of Pierce street, is in charge, with Mrs. E. B. Root, of Pierce street, assisting her.

The Queen Esther society, an organization of younger girls in the church, will have charge of a candy booth, at which all kinds of home-made candies will be available. An apron booth, containing all types of aprons, plain and fancy, will also be in the hands of Mrs. John Crawford, of Knox street, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Wightman of Oakland avenue.

Faked goods will have a booth of their own, with Mrs. Lyman Green, of Pierce street, Mrs. Claude Morrow, of Merrill street in charge and Mrs. M. Morgan, of Oakland avenue, will officiate at a general country store booth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cushing, of Oakland avenue will entertain their bridge club at a dinner meeting Friday night.

HEADS DRIVE

MRS. BOLAND H. MANN

Mrs. Mann, as newly appointed chairman of the Bloomfield Township Red Cross, is in charge of the collection of clothes for the Massingbooth sufferers which is going forward in the township today. Anyone having any clothes of any sort to send, is requested to get in touch with Mrs. Mann, who lives at 423 Greenwood avenue, and she will see that it is called for.

DWYER, MILLER NUPTIALS HELD

Wedding Attracts Many Village, Bloomfield Hills Folk

Of particular interest to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills was the wedding at 11:30 a. m., yesterday morning of Miss Marjory Dwyer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dwyer, of Detroit and Dr. Phillip Ray Miller the son of Mrs. Francis C. Miller, of Iron River, Mich.

Mrs. Madeleine Couzens, the daughter of Senator and Mrs. James Couzens, of "Walpole," returned from Washington, where she is attending college, and Mrs. James T. McMillon, of Toledo, Ohio, who was, before her marriage, Miss Eleanor Mack, of Bloomfield Hills, came up to attend Miss Dwyer as bridesmaids. Miss Ruth Curney, of St. Louis, also served as bridesmaid.

Miss Dwyer was gowned in ivory velvet, made with a round neck, and carried a bouquet of white roses, with white tulle caught with a band of silver lace, and she carried white rosettes, and valley lilies, tied with silver ribbon.

Miss Couzens, Mrs. McMillon and Miss Curney wore mint green velvet, with V. necks and long sleeves, coming to a point over the hands. Miss Dwyer carried a bouquet of white roses, a sister of the bride, who acted as maid of honor, wore mint green chiffon and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Dr. and Mrs. Miller plan to reside in Toledo, after a two weeks motor trip through the east.

Social Briefs

The Misses Cora and Lillian Lawler, of Marquette, are spending a few days with their father, Richard Lawler, at his home on Elm street.

Charles Olin, of Wallace street, will be in town Friday for Trout Lake, north of Marquette, in the Upper Peninsula, for the deer hunting season. He drove through with a number of other hunting enthusiasts, including Christopher Anderson, Fred Hoffman and Carl Westoby.

Mrs. Ada McKinney, of Purdy street, will be the guest of her niece Miss Joseph Clark, of Ludington, Mich.

Mrs. Ada Palmer, of St. Clair, is spending the week-end at the guest of her daughter Mrs. J. H. Marjorie of Park street.

Arthur Hartwell Jr. of Brown street, spent the week-end in Milwaukee.

Miss Mary Griffith, Community House hostess, of the old Hills will monitor to Santa Barbara, California, after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Nelson Whitte, of Santa Barbara, California, after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris and children, John and Clarence Jr., of Forest avenue accompanied by Mrs. G. Garrett and W. Wright of Pontiac, spent the week-end in Flint. A luncheon was given in their honor by the latter and sister-in-law of Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes, on Dye road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ockerlie, of Pierce street, entertained twenty-two guests at a rabbit dinner Sunday.

DANCING CLASS STARTS FRIDAY

A class in ballroom dancing for boys and girls of high school age, will open at the Community House at 7 p. m. Friday under the direction of Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith, it is announced today.

Approximately 20 students are expected at the opening meeting of the class, which will continue to meet Friday evenings at the House. Additional registrations will be accepted at the Community House.

Miss Smith conducted a similar class last year, which met with considerable success. She has two classes, Monday and Friday afternoons, this year in fancy dancing, in addition to this new class.

PLAN WEDDING DECEMBER 1

Miss Bertha Jones To Marry Earl Davison In Village

Although no definite date has been set for the marriage of Miss Bertha Jones, of Elm street, to Earl Davison, whose engagement to Birmingham chapter of No. 222 Order of the Eastern Star, for Nov. 30. The party, at which 12 bridesmaids are expected, will be held at 1 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Tickets will be on sale to the public by members of the divisions within a few days, it is announced.

WOMEN OF INDIA ARE PROGRESSING

Noted Lecturer, Says Emancipation of Females of Species Will Hold

"The women of India will require at least 100 years before they catch up with their American sisters in the matter of progress in the business, professional and political world. The only place they have a chance of catching up is in the home, where they have no opportunity to achieve such heights." This is what Chandra Sena Gourene, Indian lecturer, told an audience at the Monday meeting of the Detroit Women's City club.

"The emancipation of women has come to stay in India," he said, "America is the only country in the world where people are not afraid of it."

"The people of India are impressed with the fact that it is of the transitory nature of material things. Their outlook is particularly disturbed just now—they don't know which way to turn."

The forces which disturb, according to Gourene, are the influence of the Occident, the need of men of mature wisdom in the ranks of the masses, the non-acceptation of women and burdensome taxes.

"The Occident, he said, "blew in to India," and India is now at a loss to know whether to accept its teachings or not. India's climate is not suited to industry, and its people do not particularly envy the plight of Japan, who did follow the European tradition, and now finds herself a poor imitation of an occidental country, producing nothing that is purely Japanese."

"Men who are interested in philosophy," he continued, "leave the ranks of the people at about 35 years of age, and retire for meditation into the woods. This is due in part to the fact that Indians believe that every individual must find God for himself. So India is left without them at a time when they could be most valuable to her."

Mrs. Harry Berg, Mrs. James Todd, and Mrs. Otto Berg, maintained the second division of the Presbyterian Ladies Church Society at the home of Mrs. Berg, on Pierce street Thursday afternoon. During the business meeting, plans were made for a food sale to be held on Dec. 3 at Ouse's Market. After the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

EASTERN STAR BRIDGE NOV. 30

A bridge luncheon is being planned today by division No. 3, of the Eastern Star, for Nov. 30. The party, at which 12 bridesmaids are expected, will be held at 1 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Tickets will be on sale to the public by members of the divisions within a few days, it is announced.

Rainbow Girls To Hold Party

Plans are nearing completion today for a card party to be given Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple by the Birmingham Assembly of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls. Tables of bridge, five hundred, and buncu will be at play at the affair, which will begin at 8 p. m. Loretta Porritt, of Adams road, worthy advisor of the Birmingham assembly, and the other officers of the assembly will act as hostesses on this occasion.

Either Kist found the treasure in the treasure hunt which the girls held last Saturday night. The hunt, in which 29 members of the club participated, started at the Masonic Temple and, after leading the girls all over town, into houses, stores and banks, finally brought them up at the Star Motor coach station, where the treasure lay.

After the hunt the girls retreated to the temple for refreshments and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Musher (Helen Savage) have returned from an extended honeymoon through the south, and are taking up their residence at 113 Park street. Mr. and Mrs. Musher were married in October, and since that time have been motoring through the southern part of the country.

Birmingham Women At College Luncheon

Several Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women attended the luncheon given by the Detroit Order of the Eastern Star at the home of Mrs. John Decker, on Sembole avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. E. L. Baker, of Hamilton avenue, Miss Louise Peppers, of Redding road, Mrs. Snyder, of Bloomfield Hills, Miss Carolyn Boehm, of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. R. C. Diserens, of Riverview, and Mrs. J. H. Wright, of Bloomfield Hills, all went in for the lunch.

Lawson - Co Lumber Co

Boehm, of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. R. C. Diserens, of Riverview, and Mrs. J. H. Wright, of Bloomfield Hills, all went in for the lunch.

Prepare your Child for the Future

Many ailments among grown-ups are the direct result of the faulty shoes they wore as children. Fitting your child's feet with Kalisteniks is a good form of health insurance. They support the soft bones and develop young muscles. Special "Allente" heel and tip insure longer wear.
