

Democratic

Crowning Events Are Anticipated

Birmingham today is looking forward to the crowning events of Prosperity Week to be held tonight, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

With an open night last night because of the postponement of the opening of the new Kunsky-Birmingham theater until Monday evening, committee members feel there will be a renewed interest in the activities which remain on the program.

Thousands of persons are expected tonight at the school display in the evening, the field day exercises at Barnum field and the Parent-Teacher association program in the afternoon at the various grade schools.

Weather Seen as Aid

Colder weather, predicted for today, is expected to bring many people downtown. Rain during the opening days of the week, kept many persons at home. The down-pour which was with flags and bunting, have been more crowded during the week than ever, and throngs are expected to witness the parade Friday night and the aerial program planned for Saturday morning and afternoon.

Special Parades Will Be Made in the Afternoon by James Crane of Detroit, It is Announced

Special parades will be made in the afternoon by James Crane of Detroit, it is announced by the Kunsky-Birmingham Brooks, has arranged the program. While particulars of the parade have not yet been worked out definitely, they are tentatively planned to take place at 3 p. m. The aerial circus will be held at 10 a. m.

Mr. Crane has made more than 100 parachute jumps and is well known in various parts of the country. Arrangements were being made yesterday for him to land in the city.

Plans are complete today for the parade which will include more than 100 parachute jumps and is well known in various parts of the country. Arrangements were being made yesterday for him to land in the city.

WEEK'S PERMITS TOTAL $46,500

Five permits issued in village in 14 days. Record show.

Five building permits, totaling $46,500, have been issued during the last two weeks. Home permits again feature the list, three of the permits being for homes of $10,000 or more.

NEW TRAFFIC LIGHTS FLASHES CHANGED

The traffic lights at Oakland and Brown streets have been placed in accordance with a statement issued by Chief of Police James Anderson yesterday.

From 6 to 9 in the morning and from 4 to 7 in the evening, the lights will operate as follows: During the rest of the day and all night, the yellow light at Woodward and Brown streets will flash alternately, acting as a warning and not as a stop signal. This practice will be continued until some other change is warranted.

OUR MISS WINDOW SHOPPER HEARS AND ENJOYS NEW BUY BUY SONG

By Miss Window Shopper

"Buy, Buy, Pretty Lady," is the refrain of the new buy buy song which is being sung in the windows of Birmingham stores as singing this week as Mrs. Birmingham, in her latest hit, has taken the lead to take advantage of the Prosperity Week bargains being advertised.

A delicate high soprano, clear and sweet, calls the lady to the perfume counter. She is tempted by the delightful window display. She approaches the counter, where another array of all the toilet articles she has not seen for a very long time.

A window full of teapots reminds her of her tea party. "Here it is more than a week since Mrs. Royal Oak invited me over there, and she has not been returning the party. I really don't need a new teapot but that is such a beautiful one. I'll buy it." Here she has listened to the soft, contralto "afternoon-tea" voice calling the buy buy song in a lower key.

From the candy displays comes Mrs. Birmingham's voice, half-soprano, half-contralto. "I might get him some cough drops for his cold," she

UNION SERVICE FOOD CHURCHES HERE SUNDAY

Pastors Combine in Ceremonies To Be Held At Baldwin

REV. ATTKINS TO SPEAK

Union services in combined celebration of Prosperity Week and Thanksgiving Day, to be held by six churches in the village at 4 p. m. Sunday at the Baldwin High School auditorium, will climax the week's activities, it is announced today.

BLUMFIELD BONDS SOLD

Bring Four And One-Quarter Percent At Public Auction

Township bonds to the amount of $45,500, to pay for the graveling of Cranbrook road, were sold yesterday to the Griswold First State Company, of Detroit, for four and one-quarter per cent, in an auction bid. Contracts completing the transaction were to be drawn up today.

STREET REPAIRS WILL TALK TO LEAGUE

James C. Lawson Will Discuss Legal Rights Michigan Women

James B. Lawson, state representative from the 12th district, will address the League of Women Voters at the last meeting of the league, to be held at the Baldwin High School, at 7 p. m. today.

MAN KIDNAPED! HORRORS, BUT DON'T WORRY

John Somers Shows Up at Police Station While He Is Sought

"What's doing? Oh yes, a kidnaping. John Somers, the man in charge of the garbage collection here was kidnaped."

This conversation occurred yesterday at the police station between a reporter and the desk sergeant.

High pressure questioning elicited the fact that no more details were ascertainable. Royal Oak police had an urgent report of a man who had been kidnaped. So did the sheriff's office at Pontiac.

'Pet', Royal Oak's 'Wild Bear', Is Home Again

Rampage of Bear Leaves Him Dead, Lame and Longing For Home

Royal Oak, Nov. 16.—"Pet," the big brown bear which terrorized Pleasant Ridge and Royal Oak children and mothers Monday afternoon, before it was lassoed by the Royal Oak police, returned to his pen this afternoon, hungry, tired and lame in one leg.

THE WEEK'S PROGRAM

Thursday afternoon: High School students hold field events, Barnum field. High and Junior high school classes suspended. Grade schools open to p. m. in Adams and Baldwin schools, followed by program in Baldwin auditorium, followed by dance at the Community House.

Friday night: Big street parade. Merchants open stores to visitors.

Saturday, 10 a. m.: Lindbergh, Brock, Scler and 21 pursuit planes take part in aerial circus. Parachute jumps at 3 p. m.

Sunday, 4 p. m.: Union service, six churches, Baldwin auditorium.

DEMOCRACY'S ON TRIAL' SAYS DR. STEVENS

Noted Educator Tells Service Club Of Man's Political Progress

Dr. William O. Stevens, headmaster Cranbrook School in Bloomfield Hills, spoke yesterday at the dinner meeting of the Kunsky-Birmingham Service Club, choosing as his subject, "Democracy: A Trial." Dr. Stevens was presented to the club by Grover Cook, who had charge of yesterday's program.

THROGS SEE MODEL CITY

Swiss Village Also Attracts Hundreds In First Days

The Swiss village and model city on display in the Birmingham Savings Bank building this week, are drawing large crowds daily, records today show.

In two days the Swiss village, with 1,432 persons, has attracted more than 1,000 spectators. Tuesday afternoon, between 7 and 11 p. m., 629 were there.

PARENTS HEAR P. T. A. ADDRESS

Detroit Library Expert Gives Talk At Adams School Meeting

A fresher view of education is being given to the parents of the children, maintained William A. Barras in a talk before an audience of the P. T. A. at the Adams P. T. A. in the music room of that school, Mr. Barras, educational director of the Boarding of the Detroit Public Schools, and was invited to speak here just now as part of the general program of National Book Week.

DR. EMERSON GIVES LITERARY REVIEW

Detroit Preacher Says Modern Poets Express 'The Rough and Graded'

Dr. Chester B. Emerson, of Detroit, gave a delightful review of some of the modern poets for the members and guests of the Women's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. C. Setter, 644 Merrick avenue.

WILL PLAN DETAILS OF LIBRARY OPENING

Members of the Baldwin Public Library Board will meet Saturday evening to make detailed plans for the formal opening of the new library which is scheduled to take place early in December.

WEATHER

A cold Birmingham awaited the awakening villagers this morning after a steady drizzle in the forenoon last night. Weather forecasts predict the thermometer will reach 25 degrees with a cold west to northwest winds.

Teachers, Students To Give Program

With the annual senior high school field day events being held this afternoon and regular classes and a program arranged for tonight in the Baldwin High School and Adams Junior High School, today, school day, promises to be one of the most entertaining and constructive days of all the big days of Prosperity Week.

THROGS SEE MODEL CITY

Swiss Village Also Attracts Hundreds In First Days

The Swiss village and model city on display in the Birmingham Savings Bank building this week, are drawing large crowds daily, records today show.

In two days the Swiss village, with 1,432 persons, has attracted more than 1,000 spectators. Tuesday afternoon, between 7 and 11 p. m., 629 were there.

WARREN MAN DIES OF INJURY

John C. Setter Fatally Hurt When Auto Collide

Andrew Carlson, 6740-street, Detroit, is held in jail today on a charge of negligent homicide, pending the outcome of an investigation into an automobile accident in which John C. Setter, of Warren, was fatally injured Tuesday evening at Fourteenth and Labeled streets, Detroit.

WILL PLAN DETAILS OF LIBRARY OPENING

Members of the Baldwin Public Library Board will meet Saturday evening to make detailed plans for the formal opening of the new library which is scheduled to take place early in December.

WEATHER

A cold Birmingham awaited the awakening villagers this morning after a steady drizzle in the forenoon last night. Weather forecasts predict the thermometer will reach 25 degrees with a cold west to northwest winds.

THE WEEK'S PROGRAM

Thursday afternoon: High School students hold field events, Barnum field. High and Junior high school classes suspended. Grade schools open to p. m. in Adams and Baldwin schools, followed by program in Baldwin auditorium, followed by dance at the Community House.

Friday night: Big street parade. Merchants open stores to visitors.

Saturday, 10 a. m.: Lindbergh, Brock, Scler and 21 pursuit planes take part in aerial circus. Parachute jumps at 3 p. m.

Sunday, 4 p. m.: Union service, six churches, Baldwin auditorium.

WEATHER

A cold Birmingham awaited the awakening villagers this morning after a steady drizzle in the forenoon last night. Weather forecasts predict the thermometer will reach 25 degrees with a cold west to northwest winds.

THE WEEK'S PROGRAM

Thursday afternoon: High School students hold field events, Barnum field. High and Junior high school classes suspended. Grade schools open to p. m. in Adams and Baldwin schools, followed by program in Baldwin auditorium, followed by dance at the Community House.

Friday night: Big street parade. Merchants open stores to visitors.

Saturday, 10 a. m.: Lindbergh, Brock, Scler and 21 pursuit planes take part in aerial circus. Parachute jumps at 3 p. m.

Sunday, 4 p. m.: Union service, six churches, Baldwin auditorium.

WEATHER

A cold Birmingham awaited the awakening villagers this morning after a steady drizzle in the forenoon last night. Weather forecasts predict the thermometer will reach 25 degrees with a cold west to northwest winds.

THE WEEK'S PROGRAM

Thursday afternoon: High School students hold field events, Barnum field. High and Junior high school classes suspended. Grade schools open to p. m. in Adams and Baldwin schools, followed by program in Baldwin auditorium, followed by dance at the Community House.

Friday night: Big street parade. Merchants open stores to visitors.

Saturday, 10 a. m.: Lindbergh, Brock, Scler and 21 pursuit planes take part in aerial circus. Parachute jumps at 3 p. m.

Sunday, 4 p. m.: Union service, six churches, Baldwin auditorium.

(Merchants are keeping their stores open evenings throughout the week)

RURAL SUBSCRIBERS MAY HAVE DAILY PAPERS

Subscribers to the Birmingham Evening Post who live outside of Birmingham and do not receive the daily edition of the paper may have their papers delivered to their homes. Write to the office, Room 1121, 1121 Woodward building, Birmingham, for details.