LEGION POST STARTS DRIVE

Set Goal At 150; Every Ex-Serviceman To Be Sought

With a goal placed at 150, the Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion last night started an intensive membership drive at its reorganization meeting in the Community House.

Leon Mix, former commander, was elected to the chairmanship of the membership commission and he plans to enlist the membership of every ex-serviceman in Birmingham.

Lloyd L. Stanley, present commander, plans an extensive program for the year and told members at the meeting last night he wanted their cooperation in making the organization more lively.

All equipment of the Legion is being checked and 10 more guns for parade and funeral services were ordered.

Mr. Stanley asked that all ex-servicemen in Birmingham get in touch with Legion officers at the regular meeting night, the third Wednesday of every month, in the Community House.

CORRECTION

A story appeared on the school page of last Thursday's Eccentric, headed "Third Cranbrook School Described." This heading and one line in the story were incorrect. The Rev. Mr. Cox, of Sydney, Australia, was on a visit to Cranbrook to see the school because there was also a Cranbrook School in Sydney. There are only two known.

In the Canadian northwest a preserve of 15,000 square miles S. W. was arrested for a felony committed in England nineteen years ago.

Isaac was dying, there was no doubt about it. His family had anxiously gathered about his bedside. Suddenly his eyes opened. His wife leaned over and said tenderly, "Ikey, do you know me?"
 "Ach, what foolishments; sure I know you, you're Rebecca, my wife."
 "And these peoples, do you know them?"
 "Ya, Jake, my son; Isadore, my nephew; Rosie, my daughter; Simon, my son and my brothers, David and Joseph—Ach, Gott, who's tending store?"—Curtis Service.
