DRUNK DRIVER DRAWS TERM

Man Who Injures Children In Crash Gets 50 Days

(Special to The Eccentric)
Pontiac, Nov. 16.—William Hartrow, Flint, was sentenced to 50 days in the Oakland County jail and his operator's license was revoked for six months as a result of an automobile accident in which two small boys, Richard and Robert Bureau, seven and four years old, respectively, of Union Lake were injured Sunday night. Hartrow was arraigned Monday afternoon in Municipal court, on a charge of driving while drunk. The accident occurred on the Commerce road two miles from here Sunday night, when Hartrow's car collided head-on with one driven by E. J. Bureau, father of the boys. Hartrow was said to have been driving on the wrong side of the road. Officers said they found a half pint of liquor under Hartrow's machine after the accident.

INTER-CHURCH GAMES START

Plans For First Basket-Ball Contests For January

Plans for an inter-church basketball league for employed young men in Southern Oakland County are being formulated today by Robert D. Lynd, secretary of the Lower Oakland County Y. M. C. A., under whose auspices the league will be organized. The league will meet weekly for inter-church games, beginning about the first of the year, Mr. Lynd said. Several churches in the area have already signified their intentions of entering a team in the league. Among those who have definitely decided to enter are the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Birmingham, the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Royal Oak, the Baptist Church of Halsey, the Ferris Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Starr Congregational Church, near Royal Oak. H. I. Doying, Birmingham florist, will manage the Birmingham team, Mr. Lynd announced. A meeting of representatives of the churches interested is to be held early next week, Mr. Lynd said, after which organization of the various teams is expected to take place.

PITY THE POOR POLICEMAN! SUNDAY THE SAME AS OTHERS

Pity the poor Birmingham policeman! Saturday afternoon means nothing of his young life but more worry. No matinee for him. Sunday means still more worry. It may be a day of rest to the rest of the world, but it's just another day to him with the work a little heavier than usual.

Still, the job of policeman has its advantages. How many of us haven't wished we could answer in the affirmative, when we have asked an acquaintance, "Where are you going?" and have received the response "Are you a policeman?" And again, although the policeman works on Saturday afternoons and Sundays, when the world at large is loafing, he does have one day a week of rest, either Monday, or Tuesday or one of the other regular work days. And the policeman can dress in his Sunday best and come down and rag his friends about working, which may have its measure of satisfaction. He can go around a golf course in the summer days and be sure he is following his own ball, and not the one of the person right behind him or right ahead of him. He can drive his car and not be caught in the awful Saturday and Sunday rushes.

The job of policeman, it would appear, like every other job in the world, has its advantages and disadvantages, its ups and downs, its Sundays and weekdays, although they don't agree with the Roman calendar. And anyway, we're not in Rome.

LIBRARY DRAPES ARE MADE HERE

Draperies, curtains and window shades for the new Baldwin library, which will be opened in December, are being furnished by the Wright Drapery shoppe, north Woodward avenue. George Wright, in charge of the shop, gained experience in interior decoration, while connected with the firm before coming to Birmingham. Special samples are carried by Mr. Wright so that the designs need not be duplicated in one community.

PARK GRADING STARTS MONDAY

Bids are being received today by Village Manager James W. Parry on the rough grading of park space north and south of Maple avenue at Baldwin avenue. The grading, on the site of the recently demolished pump house and on the vacant property across from the present pump house on Baldwin avenue, will be followed by seeding, to make these sections fitting additions to the parks adjoining them, Manager Parry said. The bids will be closed Saturday, and work is expected to begin on the grading Monday. It should be finished by the end of next week, Mr. Parry said.

Time Is Extended In Baby Contest

Entries into the contest under the auspices of the Triax Furniture and Hardware company will be received until Nov. 22 at 6 p. m., according to an announcement made today by firm officials. A bed, fully equipped, will be the prize to the baby of Bloomfield or Troy townships born closest to the time of the raising of the curtain at the pre-opening of the new Kussky-Birmingham theater. Entries must be made in a written form signed by the attending physician and the announcement of awards will be made from the stage of the theater that evening, according to firm members.

PLAN TO CLEAN BED OF RIVER

Contracts To Be Awarded Saturday After Bidding

Work on the cleaning out of the bed of the River Rouge is expected to begin Monday, following the closing of the informal bidding on the job next Saturday. Village Manager W. Parry announced yesterday. The work will probably be completed by the end of next week, Mr. Parry said. No dredging will be done, the purpose being merely to clean the rubbish, old tires, pieces of wagon and such from the bottom of the river before the cold weather sets in. The whole Birmingham section of the river, from Residence Park to the sewage disposal plant, will be cleaned.

AUDITOR HERE IN JANUARY

Final Checking And Balancing Of Books Going Forward

Checking and balancing of the village books is going forward today in preparation for the annual visit of the auditors in January. The books are in excellent shape, according to Charles E. Plumstead, village treasurer, following the closing of tax collection in Birmingham several weeks ago. The exact total of village taxes collected in Birmingham before the time limit was $206,238.50, with $877.42 penalties added. The remainder of taxes, to be paid at the country treasurer's office in Pontiac, amount to $58,939.40, with $2,358.45 penalties.
