FASHIONS HERE AND THERE

New York.—The full, loose back coat is coming into its own. While the long rather snug coat is still worn for dress occasions...

Paris.—Crepe de chine shoes are embroidered in gold for evening wear in Paris. The pastel tones in their palest tints are prominent. The idea is to have the shoes match the gown.

New York.—Sometimes the ends of a match are far separated, especially when it is costume accessories which make the match. One of the latest novelties is to have the buckles of one's pumps match in design and material the buckles posed on the front of the high-crowned hat.
