"Auntie," said the little boy, reading from his story book, "you must be awful wicked."
"What makes you say that?" frowned his relative.
"Because this book says that the good die young."

DATE SET FOR PLAYER-DANCE

Christmas Party To Be Held December 17 In Playhouse

The Christmas subscription dance of the Village Players will be given Dec. 17 at the Playhouse. This is the first of three dances to be given during the year.

Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, general chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Howard L. Simpson, who will have charge of the music.

After the Theater

One of the most elaborate affairs held in Birmingham in many years was the buffet supper at the Woodward Tavern, on north Woodward avenue, Monday evening, after the opening of the new theater at Birmingham and Blount Hill roads, Monday evening.

The long table was a picture, with red, blue and gold center, backed by dishes of olives, dressings, salads, and pastry. Two large brass chandeliers, at each end of the table, provided light and a picturesque effect.
