MISS COUZENS IS ENGAGED

Betrothal Of Senator's Eldest Daughter To William Yaw Announced

The announcement last week of the engagement of Miss Madeleine Couzens, eldest daughter of Senator and Mrs. James Couzens, to William R. Yaw, of Detroit, came as a delightful surprise to the friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Couzens is at present in Washington, D. C., having left for there Sunday to complete her law course at George Washington University. This is her last year. She surprised her friends a year or so ago when she went into the study of law. Before entering the university she was a student at the Sacred Heart convent, in Detroit, and Miss Brownson's school, in New York City.

She was formally presented to society in 1924, at a reception at the Palmetto hotel, Detroit. He is a graduate of the university of Ohio at Athens, O., class of 1919. He has been in Detroit for about six years, employed by the Goodrich Tire and Rubber company. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.
